A Hard Goodbye

Assistant trainer Abrego reflects on time with Knicks Go

By Sara Gordon

A little more than two years ago, Maryland-bred star Knicks Go walked into trainer Brad Cox's barn at Churchill Downs for the first time—and met assistant trainer Jorje Abrego. It's been a partnership ever since, resulting in two Breeders' Cup wins, two Maryland-bred Horse of the Year crowns and in 2021 Eclipse Awards as North America's Horse of the Year and champion older male.

Abrego didn't recognize Knicks Go's future stardom right away, but felt the potential in an otherwise routine 3-furlong workout at Oklawn Park in early 2020.

"I think there's something special here," Abrego told his boss about Korea Racing Authority's colt. "I love the way this horse breezed."

"Oh that's good," Cox replied. "I'm glad you like the horse."

Everyone would soon share the opinion. The horse who endured eight consecutive losses as a 3-year-old in 2019—but flashed promise with a Grade 1 win and a second in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile-G1 in 2018—was on the verge of something big. In his first start for Cox, in February 2020, the son of Paynter easily won an Oaklawn allowance but went to the sidelines for knee surgery.

By fall he was back, and even better. Bred by Angie Moore and raised by her daughter Sabrina at GreenMount Farm in Glyndon, Knicks Go set a track record for 1 1/16 miles in a Keeneland allowance, then backed it up with a Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile-G1 score.

"People thought we were crazy running him in the Breeders' Cup off of running him in an allowance but you know, the barn was very excited," said Abrego. "Everybody was excited for him, and to see that horse win the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile was one of the most amazing moments for me."

The moments kept coming in 2021 as Knicks Go won five of seven starts—taking the Pegasus World Cup-G1, Prairie Meadows Cornhusker-G3, Whitney-G1, Lukas Classic-G3 and Breeders' Cup Classic-G1 to close his 5-year-old campaign. The losses came with back-to-back fourths in the Saudi Cup-G1 in February and Metropolitan Handicap-G1 in June.

COADY PHOTOGRAPHY

Again, the Breeders' Cup provided the highlight for Abrego, who watched from Kentucky while overseeing Cox's string at Churchill.

"Everybody had the question, 'Can this horse go a mile-and-a-quarter?' and I didn't have any questions," he said. "I'd seen my boy training every day, I'd seen the horse gallop out after his breezes and the way that horse galloped out, I mean no question, he could go a mile-and-a-quarter."

Knicks Go briefly went to Taylor Made Farm, his home for a stud career which began last month, after the Breeders' Cup but returned to Churchill Nov. 17 to prep for his final start—another Pegasus at Gulfstream Park Jan. 29.

Lead shank in hand, Abrego met him at the loading chute.

"I remember the last kiss I gave to my boy was Nov. 22, because I was leaving for Oaklawn and Knicks Go was getting ready to head to New Orleans," said Abrego. "You get up, come in, see this special horse in your barn and it's kind of amazing when somebody tells you, 'This will be his last race and then he's retiring.' It makes you sad, because you see them every day, you know?"

After spending most of December and January at Fair Grounds in New Orleans, the 6-year-old finished second in the Pegasus—unable to catch 2021 Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile winner Life Is Good.

The evening before his final start, Abrego posted a message (complete with a head-shaking, stall-door rattling video clip viewed 8,994 times) for Knicks Go on Twitter: "Tomorrow is a great day for you my great champion. But if you lose or win, for me it has always been and you will be my champion. Good luck in your new life as a stallion. May your children be as fast as you."

Taylor Made vice president Mark Taylor was quick to reply, granting Abrego "all access to Taylor Made" to visit the champion anytime.

For Abrego, a 36-year-old native of Guatemala who has worked for Cox since 2009, horses leaving the barn never gets easier, especially when they're as good as Knicks Go.

"With him, when I'd pop into the shedrow, he'd look at me coming as if to say, 'Hey give me my feed, I'm ready for my feed, I'm ready to eat,'" Abrego said. "We had very good moments every day. I'm going to miss everything about this boy, everything, because he's too sweet, he's a good boy. A lot of people think that horses don't have feelings. Oh no, those people are wrong, because the horses appreciate how much you give to them."

The recognition further solidified Abrego's opinion. He'll miss his horse, but also can't wait for the next chapter.

"It's very emotional, he's the Horse of the Year. It's unbelievable, it's amazing. He's unbelievable. It's something I cannot explain, it's in my mind, in my heart. This horse is the Horse of the Year," he said. "I can't wait to get back to Kentucky and go visit him at Taylor Made. I promise I'll go visit this boy, I promise to you I'll go visit my boy, because I love him."

That's a reunion racing can't wait to hear about. ◆

MILESTONES

Ranked: As the top Mid-Atlantic-bred of 2021, Maryland-bred Knicks Go, after a landslide tally of voters in the final Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred/The Racing Biz poll of the year. The son of Paynter topped every poll during the year and also finished in the top spot in 2020, making him the first horse to win back-to-back crowns. Virginia-bred Stellar Wind showed the way in 2015 and 2017. Knicks Go won five of seven starts in 2021 while earning more than $7.3 million. In addition to his Breeders' Cup Classic-G1 score, he posted Grade 1 triumphs in the Pegasus World Cup and Whitney Stakes. Bred by Angie Moore and raised by her daughter Sabrina at GreenMount Farm, Knicks Go sold for $40,000 as a weanling and was purchased by the Korea Racing Authority for $87,000 as a yearling. Also voted North America's Horse of the Year and champion older male for 2021, he retires to a stud career at Kentucky's Taylor Made Farm with lifetime earnings of $9,258,135, second among Maryland-breds to Cigar. Knicks Go's story began at Laurel Park in September 2010 when the Moores claimed the Outflanker mare Kosmo's Buddy for $40,000. She produced winners by English Channel and Super Saver before being sent to Paynter on the advice of bloodstock agent Bill Reightler. The result was Knicks Go, who won Grade 1 stakes at 2, 4 and 5 and won eight of his final 11 starts. Following Knicks Go in second in the final poll was the Maryland-bred Aloha West, winner of the Breeders' Cup Sprint-G1. Chub Wagon, the Pennsylvania-bred filly who won eight of nine starts, was third. They were followed by Field Pass (Maryland), Chess Chief (Virginia), Beren (Pennsylvania), Cordmaker (Maryland), Jaxon Traveler (Maryland), Caravel (Pennsylvania) and Street Lute (Maryland). Voters include media members and others involved in the industry.

Hired: Kirsten Green, as the executive director of the Retired Racehorse Project at the conclusion of a national search. As the RRP's managing director and longest-serving staff member, Green fulfilled a brief period as interim executive director following the departure of Jen Roytz, who stepped back from the position at the end of 2021. Green has been involved with the RRP from its earliest years, beginning as a volunteer in 2012 and joining the organization as one of its first staff members in 2014. The Maryland native grew up riding and competing Thoroughbred lesson horses in dressage and eventing. Prior to coming to the RRP, her professional background included experience in small business administration and finance, project management, logistics, merchandising and customer service. As executive director, Green will be responsible for building upon the partnerships established by Roytz and positioning the organization for another decade of serving the aftercare industry.

Kirsten Green, new Executive Director of RRP.

Named: The 2021 Aiken-trained Horse of the Year by the South Carolina city's Parks, Recreation, and Tourism Department, graded stakes winner Madone. Campaigned by Kaleem Shah and trainer Simon Callaghan, Madone won twice in 2021 – capturing the Senorita-G3 and San Clemente-G2 stakes in California. The now 4-year-old daughter of Vancouver (Aus) trained at the Aiken Training Track with Cary Frommer. Created in 2002, the award honors local Thoroughbreds for excellence during a specific season. Nominees must have trained in Aiken County and must have won at least one graded stakes race during the year or exceeded $500,000 in career earnings. The Hall of Fame Advisory Board approves the winner. An exhibit about Madone's 2021 racing season will be on display at the Hall of Fame. Past winners include Congaree (2002), Wando (2003), Limehouse (2005), Bob and John (2006), Country Star (2007), Midshipman (2008), Quality Road (2009 and 2010), It's Tricky (2011), Alpha (2012) Palace Malice (2013 and 2014), Curalina (2015 and 2016), Dickinson (2017), Still Having Fun (2018) and Concrete Rose (2019).

Downgraded: From Grade 3 to listed status, Laurel Park's Frank J. De Francis Memorial Dash Stakes, as part of the American Graded Stakes Committee adjustments announced in late January. First run in 1990 and first graded in 1992 (a Grade 3), the De Francis Dash has been up and down the graded stakes ladder ever since, including Grade 1 from 1999-2009. In other regional changes, the Parx Dash Stakes was also downgraded from Grade 3 to listed; Pimlico Race Course's Prince George's County Stakes was upgraded to listed status; and Laurel's Dave's Friend and Presque Isle Downs' Satin and Lace were downgraded from listed to non-listed black-type status. A total of 449 races have graded status through January 2023, of which 101 are Grade 1, 135 Grade 2 and 213 Grade 3. Of those, 38 are run in the Mid-Atlantic region – five Grade 1: Haskell and United Nations (Monmouth), Preakness (Pimlico) and Pennsylvania Derby and Cotillion S (Parx Racing).

Created: A "Parx Madness" lineup of enhanced purses and stakes races March 7, 8, 9 at Parx Racing in Pennsylvania. The programs will include three $100,000 stakes for older horses Monday, March 7 and four $100,000 stakes for 3-year-olds Tuesday, March 8. The madness carries over to Wednesday, March 9 with eight starter handicaps with purses of $55,000-$65,000.

Published: A 2022 schedule of 50 stakes races, New Jersey's Monmouth Park racetrack. Traditional headliners include the $1 million TVG Haskell Stakes-G1 for 3-year-old July 23, a card that will include the United Nations-G1, Monmouth Cup-G3, Molly Pitcher-G3 and WinStar Matchmaker-G3. Nine New Jersey-bred stakes will also be part of the program along with the $500,000 Nownownow Stakes for 2-year-olds on the turf on closing day Sept. 17. Racing starts Saturday, May 7.

Disqualified: R Adios Jersey from a win in the 2021 Charles Town Oaks-G3 at Charles Town Aug. 27 after post-race tests showed the presence of flunixin, a Class 4 non-steroidal anti-inflammatory more commonly referred to by its brand name Banamine. Trainer Georgina Baxter was fined $1,000. The disqualification lifted runner-up Pauline's Pearl to the victory, worth $230,400 for Stonestreet Stables and trainer Steve Asmussen, with Allworthy moved to second and Caramel Swirl third.

Power by Far

MAGGIE KIMMITT

Twenty-two years after Power by Far's last race, breeder/owner Barbara Geraghty still recounts his career with wonder and awe. Those sentiments resonate with everyone who knows the 27-year-old stallion.

Bred and foaled at Castle Rock Farm, Power by Far returned upon his retirement in 2000 and remains there. The 170-acre West Chester, Pa., property was purchased in 1957 by Geraghty's father, Joseph Giangiulio. Her brother, Peter Giangiulio, still manages and lives on the farm.

Castle Rock and its horses are a family affair in every sense. Power by Far's sire, Power of Mind (Mr. Prospector—Youthful Lady, by Youth) also stood at Castle Rock. Dam Farrah Foxet (T. V. Commercial—Foxy J. G., by Mister Pitt) was owned by Geraghty and bred by her mother. Stakes winner and Pennsylvania-bred stalwart Foxy J. G. was bred and trained by Joe Giangiulio and raced in the Castle Rock silks. Her sire, Mister Pitt, stood at the farm. Parx Racing cards the Foxy J. G. Stakes, a 7-furlong contest for fillies and mares, annually.

"Power by Far—we call him Garth—was never a foal," Pete Giangiulio said. "He was born mature. He had presence. He believed in himself."

Giangiulio remembers asking their trainer, the late Tony Correnti, his opinion of Power by Far when the 2-year-old arrived at his Philadelphia Park barn in 1997. Correnti wasn't one to trumpet the abilities of his charges, leaning instead toward the less said, the better.

"Tony, is he worth the time?" Giangiulio asked.

"Ohhhh, I think so," came the reply.

Power by Far got better from there.

The chestnut colt didn't waste any time proving Correnti right. Breaking his maiden in his second start, he won two of four in his freshman season. As a 3-year-old in 1998, Power by Far soared—with Geraghty frequently asking, "Is this really happening?"

It was. Eleven starts, seven wins—five in stakes races, three seconds and one third.

"We'd had other horses, of course, but nothing like him," Geraghty said. "He was just super-duper, I'll tell ya. It was like a dream, just so exciting. Something you never think will happen to you."

Power by Far filled Geraghty's home with plenty of crystal and silver, a MATCH Series sprint championship, and state-bred awards.

"He was Pennsylvania-bred 3-Year-Old Champion and co-Horse of the Year," Giangiulio added.

The train kept rolling in 1999: 13 starts; three stakes wins; thirds in Philadelphia Park's Breeders' Cup Handicap-G3 and Aqueduct's Gravesend Handicap-G3. But his most notable outing that year came at Pimlico on Preakness Day with a start in a particularly memorable Maryland Breeders' Cup Handicap-G3. He finished seventh after an inebriated patron walked onto the track and threw punches at the field coming down the stretch.

Power by Far always took his race on the road. In addition to his home track, Philadelphia Park, he won at Delaware Park, Penn National, Colonial Downs, Meadowlands and Laurel Park, which Geraghty maintains was the horse's favorite. He made three starts at the Maryland track—all stakes wins.

"He would get off the van at these different tracks and look around like 'OK, I'm ready,'" she said. "I think they hated to see us coming. We sent him down to Florida for a little vacation, and they said when he got off the van he looked around like 'Where's the racetrack? Why am I here?'"

Power by Far ran four times as a 5-year-old in 2000, adding two more stakes wins—Laurel's Hoover and Endless Surprise—to an already impactful resume. He retired that September with a record of 32-15-4-5 and $544,335, giving Geraghty and Giangiulio serious clout to add to the Castle Rock stallion roster for 2001.

At stud, Power by Far produced several six-figure earners, including Powerful Sun ($249,246), Xtra Power ($252,262), Nibiru's Return ($343,421) and Power by Leigh ($411,948). His best progeny is Power of Snunner, multiple graded-stakes-placed winner of $638,685. Power of Snunner won the Foxy J. G. Stakes in 2015 and 2018. Purchased by Ronyld Wise for $65,000 at Keeneland's November sale in 2018, she produced a Mendelssohn colt in 2020 and a filly by Hard Spun in 2021.

"You have to realize that this horse did it with mares that nobody thought anything of," Giangiulio said. "Power by Far took these mares and really helped them."

Geraghty and Giangiulio have two more hopefuls waiting in the wings—both produced from the Snuck In mare Rage of Aquarius. Three-year-old Power of Aquarius is with Correnti's son, Armand, awaiting his first start. Prince Lucas, now 2, will follow along this year.

Power by Far shares VIP status at Castle Rock with two other senior stallions—22-year-old Rimrod and Harry the Hat, now 33 and the featured Pensioner on Parade in the December 2019 edition of this magazine. But this time last year, Geraghty and Giangiulio feared they would lose Power by Far when he required surgery for a twisted intestine.

"They had to cut it out and resection it, and the first surgery didn't work," Geraghty said. "So they had to go back in, and I thought, 'Oh here we go, we're gonna lose this guy.' They redid it, and he made it through. Unionville Equine performed the surgeries. They called me every day with progress reports; some days they weren't so good. But they really did a wonderful job, and he is back to his old self. And I think the reason he is still alive is because he's such a fighter. Now he's got the rest of his life to live in comfort."

"They were telling Barbara that at his age—he was 26—the surgery was so risky," Giangiulio said. "But she said, 'He gets every chance he can to survive.' That's just what we do. I go up to the stallion barn every evening to check them, give them a little feed, a little hay and water. And if I take a little too long getting his feed, he's giving me hell—so it's great."

Both give endless credit for the horses' care to farm manager June Hillman, on the job since 1995.

"June is on the other side of ridiculous as far as how hard she works. She's one of those people who'll have her sandwich in her mouth as she's working," Giangiulio said. "We have 110-percent faith in her, and man she's a hell of a horsewoman. She loves these horses every bit as much as we do, if not more."

Giangiulio admits he could go on about Power by Far for hours, but instead summed him up perfectly.

"He is, in a word—indomitable. He's the man. And the only time I've ever seen that horse pin his ears was in a race. He doesn't have a mean bone in his body. He's just ridiculously special. He's the horse of a lifetime." ◆

Archives create valuable place for magazine

Consider this a warning. Reading this column could be dangerous to your productivity. It might also be good for your soul.

In a process begun seven or eight years ago, every edition of Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred magazine and its predecessor The Maryland Horse is available online at archive.org. The 1,043 (and counting) magazine editions are searchable and sortable and–in short–treasures of history, information and entertainment. I've known this chest of treasures was there, but dove in fully while researching the exploits of Broad Brush, Deputed Testamony and others for an article in this magazine.

And nearly lost myself.

There is so much stuff–articles, columns, photography, advertisements, letters to the editor, strong opinions, gentle essays, legends equine and human, bygone places and eras.

The magazines go back to the original–July 1936. That first one went four pages and included a letter from Maryland Horse Breeders Association President Chester F. Hockley. He wrote of the hiring of Humphrey S. Finney as the director of publicity for the MHBA and encouraged readers to send information about foals of 1936, yearlings to be broken, winners bred and horses sold or purchased. There was a list of stallions, an item on Alfred Vanderbilt's purchase of 11 yearling colts and a list of all MHBA directors. The phone numbers "Pikesville 600M" for Janon Fisher Jr. and "Annapolis 1850" for Finney will make you smile. Hockley even included a subtle sales pitch: "Furthermore, it is hoped that through this monthly bulletin, The Maryland Horse, the horsemen may advertise their wants, be they employees or horses. If you have something to sell, try to sell at home through these pages."

Something clicked because the August edition went to six pages and even included a photo of hotshot 2-year-old Airflame on the front page. September was a 12-pager. October and November were 16 each and by December the count was 24. A writer named "The Deacon" had a byline. An advertisement for the Man-O-War Remedy Company promoted Thoroughbred body brace and wash, cough medicine, diuretic mixture and leg paint, all "tested for twelve years."

Beyond early history, you can head off in any direction. I gave up searching my name–because it's in pretty much every edition after a certain point–but it's fun to find horses I used to know. There's Mod Man's win at My Lady's Manor in 1979 . . . Fourmatt's Federico Tesio score in 1984 . . . Tom Skiffington talking about his first ride on Owhata Chief (NZ) at Fair Hill in 1978. The people are even better. There's a letter to the editor from my brother in 1985 (he was 10) . . . a photo of my dad at the sales (nice trenchcoat) . . .

Beyond personal connections, the archives lead everywhere–bylines from Mike Pons . . . early articles by former editor Lucy Acton (then Carter) . . . executive director Cricket Goodall's promotion . . . John and Kitty Merryman strolling through a field with a broodmare . . . "pony girl" Angela Price on the cover . . . Nancy Sweet-Escott . . . a letter from John E. "Jay" Williamson III who was stationed at Fort Carson in Colorado in February 1968 . . . Fendall Clagett in the winner's circle . . . Dale Austin on the beat . . .

Nothing beats the horses you can sift through–Petee Dee . . . Native Dancer (of course) . . . a rambunctious Rash Prince at Country Life Farm . . . the Deputed Testamony Preakness coverage . . . Jay Trump . . . Mountain Dew . . . Kauai King . . . Twixt . . . Petrify . . . the occasional Standardbred, Draft or foxhunter . . . Alma North . . . Kelso's half-brother Son of the Wind entering stud . . .

The advertisements are just as interesting. Don't even look at the price of real estate. If anything, regional stallion prices have declined. There were several iterations of sales companies serving the region. Horse vans were big with Imperatore winning the battle for creativity including one full page with a six-horse van being launched (complete with champagne bottle and Navy band) like a ship above the headline "Great, Admiral . . . BUT WILL IT FLOAT?" I have no idea, but the copy made me laugh. Somewhere, another manufacturer combined a horse van with a camper. Some concoction called Tuttle's Elexer was on sale–"Works Fast. Works Well. Ask the old timers."

This could literally go on for days, so I'll stop. The magazines are stored on a digital library called archive.org, a non-profit with 38 million books and texts along with 14 million audio recordings and 625 billion web pages. How this magazine wound up there can be attributed to director of publications Barrie Reightler asking a simple question in 2013 or 2014.

"What happens if this library burns down?" she asked to herself, other staffers, the MHBA board of directors, anybody really. The office was on Padonia Road in Timonium then and included an extensive library of books and magazines. Reightler wanted a digital archive, did some homework and found solutions for scanning and storing.

"The board was great and we kept coming back to making it all available for free so people could use the magazine for research," she said. "It was all about making it available."

Ultimately, a company in Frederick, Md., offered the best solution–scanning hard copies of old magazines to the tune of 80,000 pages, creating images and assembling the monthly editions as PDFs and/or other files. It wasn't free, it wasn't necessarily easy (think about how many boxes it takes to move 68 years–1936 through 2003–of magazines), but it was worth it. The magazine began creating digital files for each magazine in 2004 so the scanning is no longer necessary.

Assistance from the National Sporting Library led to archive.org and here we are–a permanent online home to Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred and The Maryland Horse. The website offers a search window (use text not metadata) and you can further narrow your choices by searching specific years. The mechanics aren't perfect, but you'll get the hang of it.

Use the direct link below or access via the midatlantictb.com website's Digital Archives link. But get comfortable first. You might be there awhile. ◆

Knext Challenge

First Maryland-bred Horse of the Year since 1996, Knicks Go set for stud career

By Tom Law

Knicks Go walked the shedrow, Brad Cox and his team said their last goodbyes and Liam Benson readied for the 1,000-plus-mile van ride from South Florida to Central Kentucky before one last check.

"Is there anything I need to tell the guys in Kentucky, anything we need to know about him?" said Benson, a stallion nominations assistant at Taylor Made Farm tasked with riding alongside Knicks Go in the back of a Brook Ledge van from Gulfstream Park to Nicholasville, Ky.

"Liam, this horse would eat rocks if you gave them to him," said Cox, who trained Knicks Go the last two-plus seasons to victories in two Breeders' Cup races and ultimately to a Horse of the Year crown and champion older dirt male title for 2021. "He won't stop eating. It's unbelievable."

Benson believed it after the 18-hour trip—at times with temperatures dipping as low as 14 degrees from just after lunchtime on Jan. 30 until rolling up Union Mill Road to the Taylor Made stallion complex in time for breakfast Jan. 31.

"For what it's worth, you talk about horses taking care of themselves, that horse drank three buckets of water and ate as much hay as I could throw at him," Benson said. "You can't ask for a horse to do much more than that. That's one of the biggest things you fight with shipping, making sure they stay on their food and stay drinking water. If they do that, they're usually OK. This horse never stopped. And it was unbelievable."

Cox frequently remarked about Knicks Go's appetite—for his feed and for training—during his 2021 campaign that resulted in him becoming the first Maryland-bred to win Horse of the Year since Cigar pulled it off in 1995 and 1996.

In addition to becoming just the second Maryland-bred to win Horse of the Year since the Eclipse Awards were launched by the National Turf Writers Association (now National Turf Writers and Broadcasters), Daily Racing Form and Thoroughbred Racing Associations (now National Thoroughbred Racing Association) in 1971, Knicks Go is the first divisional winner bred in the state to win a championship on the flat since 2004. Declan's Moon earned the 2-year-old male honor that year, while steeplechase star Good Night Shirt landed that divisional crown in 2007 and 2008.

Knicks Go won the Horse of the Year and champion older male votes by wide margins—earning 228 of the 235 cast in the former and 232 of the 235 in the latter.

Knicks Go's connections, including Angie Moore and her daughter Sabrina Moore who bred the gray son of Paynter and raised him at their GreenMount Farm in Glyndon, made multiple trips to the podium during the 51st Eclipse Awards Dinner Feb. 10 in a large tent at Santa Anita Park in Arcadia, Calif.

The results were no surprise—Knicks Go won the Breeders' Cup Classic-G1 at Del Mar, Pegasus World Cup Invitational-G1 at Gulfstream and Whitney Stakes-G1 at Saratoga Race Course in 2021. He won five of seven starts, earning $7,324,140. Those results, and his runner-up finish behind Life Is Good in this year's Pegasus World Cup, helped Knicks Go to a record of 10-4-1 in 25 starts and earnings of $9,258,135.

By comparison, Cigar won 19 of 33 starts over four seasons and earned $9,999,815.

"[Cigar] is legendary in his own right. I would be lying to you if I said I wasn't going to feel really bad if he did ever break Cigar's earnings record," Sabrina Moore told the Maryland Jockey Club after the Eclipse Awards. "He's held it for quite a long time. For Cigar to do what he did with the purses they had back then, it almost didn't seem fair. To be in the same ranks as that horse is really neat, and it puts things into perspective.

"I've kind of normalized him a little bit. It's hard to explain, but it's kind of just become normal for me now. It's really hard for me to put into perspective that, oh wow, he's really up there with these really, really nice horses. It's unbelievable."

Aloha West, winner of the Breeders' Cup Sprint-G1 at Del Mar and runner-up in the Phoenix Stakes-G2 at Keeneland, was a finalist for champion male sprinter.

Bred by the late Bob Manfuso and his longtime partner Katy Voss at their Chanceland Farm in West Friendship, Aloha West finished second by 60 votes in the male sprinter voting to Jackie's Warrior in the third closest tally of the year.

Knicks Go walks the show ring at Taylor Made after his return to the farm in February.

"I just sent a note to my board, told them to watch the show tonight and to be proud they're breeding Maryland-breds," Cricket Goodall, executive director of the Maryland Horse Breeders Association, said the afternoon of the Eclipse Awards. "The story for the Maryland-bred program is anybody can produce a great horse. The short path or long path, you can do it. A lot of it is lightning in a bottle and everyone acknowledges that."

The Moores bred Knicks Go out of the multiple stakes-winning Outflanker mare Kosmo's Buddy, who won five of 37 starts with eight seconds and nine thirds for $298,095. Kosmo's Buddy made four consecutive appearances in the Maryland Million from 2007-10, and won the Turf Sprint in 2008. Angie Moore claimed the mare in 2010 and she and her daughter bred six foals from her, with Knicks Go the fourth, before selling her privately.

Knicks Go not only joined Cigar but Challedon, Horse of the Year in 1939 and 1940, well before the Eclipse Awards. Daily Racing Form first recognized champions in 1936 and did so on its own until 1950 when the Thoroughbred Racing Associations announced its set of champions. The list of champions bred in Maryland before the Eclipse Awards is small but select, with champion handicap mares Lady Maryland (1939), Gallorette (1946) and Conniver (1948) leading the way. In the era of the Eclipse Awards, Maryland-breds such as Devil's Bag, Smart Angle, Heavenly Cause, Star de Naskra, Safely Kept and What a Summer carried the torch along with steeplechasers Life's Illusion (1975) and the aforementioned Good Night Shirt.

Goodall noted the difference, in many of those cases.

"The difference with the former Eclipse Award winners, Breeders' Cup winners or higher profile Maryland-breds we had—a lot of them were coming in to breed to the Windfields stallions, who consequently were foaled here, like the Cigar situation," Goodall said. "There's something about this year's awards that make them more personal and seemingly more achievable.

"With Katy and Bob and Sabrina and her family and support group, it's a good story. It's not another, and I don't want to name names, but somebody who has just dumped millions and millions of dollars in the business and they're the ones standing up there to accept the awards. And they may be, but the little guys who produced them, those are great stories that deserve some acknowledgement. The breeders often don't get a lot of acknowledgement, even on the big days, the graphics under the horses names with their pedigrees don't even show the breeders. But at the Eclipse Awards Maryland will be in the limelight and we're very appreciative of that. … So we should be basking in the glory as long as we can. Hopefully it will bring more people to Maryland."

Knicks Go arrived at Taylor Made off his trip from Gulfstream just before starting his first season at stud for a 2022 fee of $30,000. He's the co-fourth most expensive new stallion for 2022, behind only champion 3-year-old male Essential Quality ($75,000), Charlatan ($50,000) and Maxfield ($40,000).

Knicks Go stands for the Korea Racing Authority, which bought him out of Peter O'Callaghan's Woods Edge Farm consignment at the 2017 Keeneland September yearling sale. O'Callaghan bought him for $40,000 as a weanling from Bill Reightler, selling on behalf of the Moores, at the 2016 Keeneland November breeding stock sale.

Knicks Go, who raced at 14 tracks, spent time at Taylor Made shortly after winning the Breeders' Cup Classic in early November to close his championship campaign. The Taylor Made team got to know the future stallion during his week-long stay.

"From the second he got off the van, he just walked into his stall, rolled, started drinking, eating, settled in," Benson said. "We showed him to breeders for four or five days. He'd stand in that center circle and I swear, he'd stand there for two hours if you asked him to. He'd just pose. He was at ease, felt comfortable."

What made it all the more remarkable to Benson and the Taylor Made team was that Knicks Go was just days removed from winning the 10-furlong Classic by 2¾ lengths over the ill-fated Medina Spirit, eventual champion Essential Quality and Grade 1 winner Hot Rod Charlie in 1:59.57.

"He was 46/100ths of a second off the track record at Del Mar when he won the Classic," Benson said. "When horses run that hard, usually they come out of it, especially older horses, not lame but just kind of crabby in general. And here he was walking with this foot-long overstride. I wouldn't say he was showing himself off, but he was walking with a purpose and he felt good.

"He's not a huge horse but he's so well balanced, it's deceiving . . . When they first started pursuing him [before the Whitney], nobody had a good eye on him but we still felt comfortable having conversations with Jun Park and the KRA because Peter O'Callaghan pinhooked him as a baby. We're thinking, 'If Peter liked him as a baby you have to figure he looked good.' Even though he was a son of Paynter, he's not the kind of guy that's going to take a gamble on Paynter unless he looks good. Especially at the price. He had to be a good-looking horse. I don't think we knew how good looking he was. Not until he got off the truck. Man, he presents himself so well."

The response from breeders has been positive, so much so that the stallion nominations team led by Ben Taylor, vice president of Taylor Made Stallions; and Travis White, stallion nominations manager, have been "slammed."

Knicks Go figures to breed a book of mares in line with first- or second-year stallions by size, but also one of quality. Benson plans to send two mares he co-owns with partners to Knicks Go and identified the Moores and O'Callaghan as others with mares in the 2021 Horse of the Year's first book.

"I'm backing the horse," Benson said. "I have partners in both mares, it's not just me outright. I'm backing the horse. How do you not use him? He was the best racehorse in the world in 2021, how do you not use him?"

REGIONAL NOTES: In addition to Knicks Go, 2021 steeplechase Eclipse winner The Mean Queen (Ire) gave Maryland another reason to be proud. Based with trainer Keri Brion at Fair Hill Training Center, the now 6-year-old mare secured 210 of the 212 first-place votes lodged in the category. Owned by Pennsylvania's Buttonwood Farm, The Mean Queen won five of six American starts in 2021 including two match-ups with Eclipse runner-up Snap Decision (trained in Maryland by Jack Fisher) . . . Maryland-based jockey Charlie Marquez finished third in the apprentice jockey voting . . . Gamine, owned by Marylander Michael Lund Petersen, finished second to Ce Ce in the female sprint voting. ◆

Road to Kentucky Derby can go through region, sometimes

BY JOE CLANCY

Dickie Small took Broad Brush to gallop in the snow. Bill Boniface dug into some Carolina soil to find the right place for Deputed Testamony. John Servis sent Smarty Jones to race in New York, to figure out if the horse could stretch his speed. Mike Trombetta and Sweetnorthernsaint took the roundabout route from Maryland to New York (twice) and Chicago.

Getting to the Kentucky Derby-G1, or even the Preakness Stakes-G1, from the Mid-Atlantic region can be a difficult task. Trainers deal with the unrivaled mix of pressure, time, weather, expectation and–most crucially–evolving young horses.

"I'm a believer that the horses have to take you there, but you don't need to complicate things for them," said Maryland-based trainer Graham Motion. "You don't want to have things get in their way of possibly proving themselves."

And a winter in the Mid-Atlantic can get in the way.

Decades ago–before the Derby field was restricted by graded earnings or a points system, before traveling with Thoroughbreds became simple, back when southern Maryland was a winter training ground–staying home was common. Now, Derby contenders go south for the winter, preferring the predictability of training in Florida, Louisiana, Arkansas, anywhere, over the vagaries of potentially frozen tracks, missed workouts and canceled races.

But that doesn't mean you can't get to Churchill Downs on the first Saturday in May, or Pimlico Race Course on the third, from the Mid-Atlantic.

Boniface won the 1983 Preakness with Deputed Testamony, off two months in North Carolina and final prep work at home in Maryland. In 2006, Sweetnorthernsaint and Trombetta wintered in Maryland. The gelding broke his maiden at Aqueduct in January, won Laurel Park's Miracle Wood Stakes in February, landed the Illinois Derby-G2 in April and started as the favorite in Kentucky. Ham Smith and Done Talking followed a similar path, upsetting the Illinois Derby at Hawthorne to make the Derby a month later. Last year, Brooklyn Strong made the Derby gate off a winter at Parx Racing. Sixty years ago, Greek Money won the Preakness after spending the winter at Brandywine Stable next to Delaware Park.

And, somewhere in a cold barn in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia, Delaware or New Jersey, a trainer ponders the future of a promising 3-year-old while waiting for the sun to get a little higher in the sky.

"If they say they don't want to run in the Derby they're telling you a little fib," said Smith of owners and trainers. "Everybody wants to win that race, but you sure as hell can't go to Florida all the time. Around here, not too many races other than New York offer points so you have to be willing to travel with a horse to get him there. Florida, New Orleans and Oaklawn are the paths most people take.

"It would be nice to see somebody make it from here. Dickie Small did it, Gary Capuano, Mike Trombetta, I did it. It can be done. We're always pulling for the home folks."

Though he didn't win the Derby in 1986, Small's Broad Brush might be the yardstick for all regional Derby hopefuls–at least by modern standards. Robert Meyerhoff's homebred lost his debut in October 1985, then won three in a row to cap his 2-year-old season. Trained by Small at Pimlico, Broad Brush opened 1986 with a second in the Star de Naskra Stakes at Laurel Jan. 5.

Then he really got good.

Of course, winter played a role and Small–as only he could–improvised along the way. He took Broad Brush for van rides, to loosen him up before training on cold mornings and to entertain him after. They went to the bank, the post office, even the airport to watch takeoffs and landings. Snow made a mess of the track at Pimlico before the General George (then restricted to 3-year-olds and run at 1 1/16 miles). The race was moved to a Thursday, and Broad Brush was ready, too ready, the day before.

"This horse, like, a day off was not gonna happen," the trainer told Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred's Vinnie Perrone in 2009. "No possible way. I went out, put chains on the van. This is the honest-to-God truth. I take him out to the farm [his father's Strathmore Stud in Monkton]; it's on a damn mountain. We used to ski on it, and we used to exercise all our horses on this hill. So I take him up there, and the snow's literally knee deep. I took three horses out there and just let 'em gallop up the hill. And he blasted up that hill and got a real heavy work."

CAPPY JACKSON COLLECTION/MARYLANDHORSE LIBRARY

Training Broad Brush took the talent of trainer Dickie Small thinking outside of the box, way outside. The prep work included training with multiple work partners in a single outing, and even a trip to the country to gallop up Strathmore Stud's mammoth hill for a workout when the track was closed due to snow.

Broad Brush won his division of the General George Feb. 20 and added the Federico Tesio nine days later. Small shipped to Latonia (now Turfway Park) near Cincinnati for the Jim Beam-G3 March 22 and Broad Brush won again. A month later, he captured Aqueduct's Wood Memorial-G1.

Borrowing a phrase from Daily Racing Form columnist Joe Hirsch, Small said he couldn't "not go" to the Derby after that. The snowy day on the hill played a key role.

"Looking backwards," Small told Perrone, "that's how he got to the Derby. If he don't work, he don't win the race; if he don't win that race, he's not goin' in the next one [the Tesio]; if he don't win the next one, he don't go to the Jim Beam; if he don't go to the Jim Beam, he don't go to the Wood. That's how he got to the Derby."

Broad Brush made the lead at the top of the stretch but yielded to Ferdinand's inside move to finish third–beaten 3 lengths. Third again in the Preakness, Broad Brush made 14 starts (at 11 racetracks) in 1986. He won seven, headed by Grade 1 scores in the Wood and the Meadowlands Cup, and earned $1.4 million. The next year, he went to California and ousted Ferdinand by a nose in the Santa Anita Handicap-G1.

Boniface didn't make the 1983 Derby with Deputed Testamony, but tried, and more than salvaged the plan when the Maryland-bred won the Preakness. The road there, predictably, meandered. After winning four of seven as a 2-year-old, Deputed Testamony deserved consideration for the big races the following spring. Boniface didn't want to go to Florida, but also didn't want to be beholden to snow, ice, wind and the rest in Maryland.

So he started looking for options.

"I went down to Carolina, it was a funny trip, my father and I were in the car driving together and every once in a while I'd stop and stick my pen knife in the dirt," Boniface said.

The senior Bill Boniface, then recently retired as the racing writer at the Baltimore Sun, asked his son a question that went something like, "What in the world are you doing?"

"Dad, it's simple, I want to go south so this horse can train every morning but not so far south that I have to clip him and he has to change everything in his environment."

The knife went into the soil just the right amount somewhere in North Carolina, and that's how Deputed Testamony and Parfaitement spent about two months on a farm near Pinehurst. They had a small training track, plenty of grass gallops and good–but not too good–weather.

"I always thought it was a good section of the country to go with a horse," Boniface said. "Horses get a little bit of the season, a little frost in the morning, but not so much that you can't train."

On April 4, Deputed Testamony made his 3-year-old debut with a second in an allowance at what is now Parx Racing near Philadelphia. Twelve days later, he won the Tesio at Pimlico. Boniface was thinking Derby, and targeted the Blue Grass-G1 at Keeneland April 28. Deputed Testamony finished sixth behind Play Fellow, but had an excuse.

"Here I am, a typical horse trainer telling you a story about what things can go wrong," Boniface began, diving into a tale about an airplane and a hundred-dollar bill for the van driver if everything went right at the airport.

DOUBLE J

Trainer Bill Boniface used time in North Carolina, and a win in Pimlico's Federico Tesio Stakes in April, to get Deputed Testamony's 3-year-old campaign going. He didn't make the Derby, but won the Preakness.

"I told the van driver I wanted him there on the tarmac waiting for this horse to get there," Boniface said. "He was there, but they couldn't unlock the gate and the horse sat on the plane for half an hour. By God, he ran a terrible race the next day and the morning after had a temperature of 104. Well, forget the Derby."

Deputed Testamony's Carolina buddy Parfaitement, whose season began with April wins at Greenwood in Canada and Aqueduct in New York plus a second in the Wood Memorial, finished 16th in the Derby won by Sunny's Halo.

Back in Maryland and thinking about the Preakness, Boniface sent Deputed Testamony to Keystone a week after the Derby and he won.

"I had to get his confidence back after the Blue Grass," said Boniface. "He won that pretty easy, and we ran him back seven days later and the rest is history."

LYDIA A. WILLIAMS

Trainer John Servis said Smarty Jones probably could have made the Kentucky Derby off a winter at Parx, though a winter at Oaklawn Park made it all a bit more realistic.

Deputed Testamony finished sixth in the Belmont Stakes-G1, won the Haskell-G1 and added one more stakes victory as a 4-year-old. Syndicated for $5 million, he stood at Boniface's Bonita Farm and is buried there. People stop in sometimes, to pay their respects. Boniface likes that, and thinks about how it happened or if it could happen again.

"I'd probably go back to the same spot," the 80-year-old said of that North Carolina farm now lost to a golf course. "You get down there, everything kind of settles down. I took horses to Gulfstream. It's expensive, a lot of work, the racing is really tough and that doesn't guarantee you'll get to the Derby. You need the horse, of course, and he was a better horse than some people give him credit for being. He meant a lot to me."

While Smarty Jones went to Oaklawn Park on his road to winning 2004 Derby and Preakness, he took the first steps in Pennsylvania. Trainer John Servis watched the chestnut win his first two starts at Parx as a 2-year-old in November—the first by 7¾ lengths, the second by 15—and couldn't help but think about bigger challenges the following spring. With better weather and a menu of stakes races, Oaklawn made sense. The trainer wanted one more answer, however.

"I was adamant about running him long once before we'd go just to see if he'd handle the distance," said Servis. "He was so fast that I was just worried about if he'd go that far. The race at Aqueduct was the only race that was available, the Count Fleet. We sat on him a month before that just to get there."

Three days into 2004, Smarty Jones handled the mile-and-70-yard Count Fleet with ease—winning by 5 lengths at 2-5. At Oaklawn, the march continued with wins in the Southwest, Rebel and Arkansas Derby-G2 before winning the first two legs of the Triple Crown.

Could Someday Farm's Pennsylvania-bred chestnut have made the Derby from home?

"Then, I would say yes," Servis said. "He was that good, and they didn't close the track as often then. Now, it's very difficult because they don't hesitate to close the track for training because of fog or if the track's a little bad. You just miss so much training now that I think it would be very difficult to keep a young horse on a schedule and you need to stay on a schedule to get to the Derby. If you miss a work or a race, or even a couple days of training, you're trying to play catch-up."

PATRICIA MCQUEEN

In 2011, Animal Kingdom, one of two Derby-bound trainees for Graham Motion, got his early prepping in Florida. He won the Kentucky Derby and finished second in the Preakness. He didn't see much of Fair Hill Training Center (above) until late spring.

And the horses in better climates are not.

In 2011, Motion aimed for the Derby with two horses. The late-starting Toby's Corner, a winner at Laurel in November and again in January, stayed at Fair Hill Training Center in Maryland. Newcomer Animal Kingdom, a maiden winner for Wayne Catalano at Keeneland in October, went to Palm Meadows in Florida.

Toby's Corner won the Whirlaway Stakes at Aqueduct Feb. 5. Animal Kingdom finished second, by a head, in a turf allowance at Gulfstream Park March 3. Two days later, Toby's Corner finished third in the Gotham-G3. Then everything changed. Animal Kingdom won the $500,000 Spiral-G3 at Turfway Park March 26 and Toby's Corner won the $1 million Wood Memorial-G1 at Aqueduct April 9.

Both horses eyed the Derby, right up until the final week. Six days before the big race, Toby's Corner worked 6 furlongs on Fair Hill's Tapeta track. Late the next morning, he was lame behind and off the Derby trail. Animal Kingdom, of course, won the Derby.

Where each horse prepped was decided for a reason.

"Animal Kingdom was not fit when he came to me so it would have been difficult to get him there from Fair Hill," Motion said. "If you miss a breeze by a couple days, you're playing catch-up. Toby's Corner was fit, he was running there, and we did the New York route. I couldn't begin to tell you about the winter that year, but it seems like it wasn't that bad. He was favored above Animal Kingdom a little bit, but he did come up sore before the Derby. We didn't get there with him. I don't know if the weather or the surface had an impact, but we didn't get there."

Consistency matters with horses, none more so than Derby horses. Trainers want regular schedules, predictable surfaces (dirt, synthetic or turf) and a lineup of races to target. Florida and other southern locales – plus California – tend to offer those things. Weather in this region adds another variable to an experiment with plenty.

"They change so much between December and May that you don't recognize them sometimes," Motion said of 3-year-olds. "It's one of the bigger changes in a horse physically."

Animal Kingdom, racing for Team Valor International, was an example of that change.

"He was a big, backward baby when he came to me," Motion said. "We used to gallop him in company because he was so laid back about it. If they're changing like that, and you think they might be that caliber, you don't want to be dealing with weather and surfaces and things too."

Trombetta and Sweetnorthernsaint navigated Maryland's winter to the Derby, but the trainer's more recent Derby attempts – with Win Win Win in 2019 and Independence Hall in 2020 – came via Florida. The reasons are as obvious as the icy puddles between his barns and the racetracks at Fair Hill and Laurel.

"The clock is ticking and it doesn't change," Trombetta said. "A sore foot, you're out, a temperature, you're out. It doesn't take that much to get derailed. To try to do it up here is very hard."

Trombetta shuttled between Maryland and Florida, but Win Win Win and Independence Hall spent the winter at Tampa Bay Downs. The former made the Derby after coming home to Fair Hill for a few weeks in late winter and finishing second in the Blue Grass. The latter didn't make it, finishing fifth in the Florida Derby at Gulfstream before missing seven months and moving to California trainer Michael McCarthy.

"That winter it was pretty mild up here so it really wasn't a problem," Trombetta said of Independence Hall's year, "but take this winter this year and it would have been a different ballgame. January, I don't think we trained on the dirt one day at Fair Hill. Laurel had a lot of problems and if you've got a good 3-year-old so many things have to go right that to work through the weather too . . . it's hard."

Owned by Joseph Balsamo and Ted Theos, Sweetnorthernsaint made the Derby from Maryland, but just barely. An equine herpesvirus outbreak nearly kept him out of Aqueduct's Gotham-G3 in March after winning Laurel's Miracle Wood in February. Third in the Gotham, Sweetnorthernsaint went to Hawthorne for the Illinois Derby in April to try to add to his graded-stakes earnings.

LYDIA A WILLIAMS

Maryland's Gary Capuano and Captain Bodgit, who went to Florida for the winter after winning five times in the Mid-Atlantic as a 2-year-old, nearly won the Derby and Preakness.

"That was before the points and I had a decision to make—run him in the Illinois Derby or the Wood; they were the only two spots that made sense," Trombetta said. "Third wasn't going to get him there so we went to Illinois. It was more low-hanging fruit. Half a million dollars, graded, not quite as tough as the Wood. Well, he won and got into the Derby."

Capuano nearly won the 1997 Derby with Captain Bodgit, whose career started with six regional starts as a 2-year-old. The Florida-bred won once at Pimlico, twice at Delaware Park and twice more (both stakes) at Laurel before heading to Florida. There he opened with thirds in the Holy Bull-G3 and Fountain of Youth-G3 and won the Florida Derby-G1. Back north, he won the Wood Memorial-G2 in New York before coming up a head short of Silver Charm in the Derby. Two weeks later, Captain Bodgit finished third—beaten two heads—in the Preakness.

Though Captain Bodgit blossomed in Florida (where Team Valor purchased the colt after the Holy Bull), Capuano called the Laurel Futurity-G3 the true turning point.

"We knew if he could run that mile-and-an-eighth as a 2-year-old, and we thought he could, he was going to be a horse you thought about bigger things for," the trainer said. "It depended on how he did it. He ran really well, won and did it in a pretty good time. He came out of the race good, and we knew. Pretty much after that race it was time to head south and start talking about things like the Derby."

Capuano and his brother Dale took about 20 horses to historic Hialeah Racetrack, and loved it. Captain Bodgit and his trainer got consistent weather, a good track and a path to the Triple Crown races.

"It was so special," Gary Capuano said. "It reminded me of the Bowie training where the track was so nice, but it was gorgeous. It was a great training surface, the atmosphere and the trees along the horsepath, just amazing."

Could he have stayed home and still made the Derby?

"I imagine he could have, but look at a year like this and you miss training, the tracks aren't consistent, the weather gets in the way," he said. "The track freezes and thaws, sometimes it's deep and cuppy because you can't put a lot of water on it. Winter weather is one more thing, along with the other million things, that can go wrong and if you're going to those big races you can't afford to miss too many days of training."

As usual, the region houses promising 3-year-olds this year, though nobody's putting them in the category of Smarty Jones or Deputed Testamony just yet.

Motion took a few to Florida, including recent $700,000 purchase Belgrade, but also left a few at home. All need to take steps forward if they're going to be in the national conversation. Pennsylvania-bred Witty won twice at Parx as a 2-year-old—the second score coming in the Pennsylvania Nursery (see Smarty Jones)—and began 2022 with a victory in Laurel's Spectacular Bid Jan. 29. Based at Fair Hill with owner/breeder Lizzie Merryman's son McLane Hendriks, the gray gelding will get a distance test at some point.

Trombetta tried New York with Mr Jefferson in February, but the Maryland-bred finished ninth in the Withers-G3. Maryland-bred Joe won the Maryland Juvenile Championship in December and opened 2022 with an allowance win going 1 1/16 miles to run his winning streak to three. The trainer and owner/breeder Stuart Grant of The Elkstone Group are stressing patience.

"I've had some conversations with Stuart about him and he's not getting caught up in Derby fever," Trombetta said. "He'll let the horse develop and if he becomes a good enough 3-year-old he'd be happy to go the Tesio-Preakness route. There's plenty of spacing, plenty of time, I don't have to travel and the weather isn't as much of a factor if you're talking about races like that. Going to the Derby is a different story."

Shiny Filly

Homebred filly Luna Belle lands Xtra Heat for Greene family, Smith

BY JOE CLANCY

It's simple, really. Decades ago, Fred Greene's horse wouldn't walk over the bridge between the barn area and the racetrack at Bowie. Trainer Steward Mitchell gave up, and sent the horse to his friend Hamilton Smith at Laurel Park.

And here we are, with Greene's daughter Debbie and Smith still winning races together and rising through the ranks with 3-year-old filly Luna Belle. The Maryland-bred dominated Laurel's Xtra Heat Stakes Jan. 29, her second consecutive stakes triumph, and looked to build on a bright future with other stakes engagements as winter headed toward spring.

Though she's a long way from that bridge-shy runner, Luna Belle goes way back with the Greenes and Smith. Fred Greene, officially Frederick A. Greene Jr., bought I'm in Heaven as a 2-year-old in 1997 and sent her to Mitchell. She won her first two starts, including Laurel's Toddler Stakes, and became a broodmare. Her daughter Heavenly Moon won five races, earned $196,540 and placed in a stakes for Smith before she too retired to a broodmare career. Her foals include four winners.

Bred by the Greenes and Smith, Luna Belle was the last foal Fred Greene saw before he died in August 2020. He left the horses to Debbie, who is enjoying every moment—even if she misses her father.

"I am having a ball," she said in February. "My feet haven't touched the ground. It's something I really never dreamed about. I think of my dad every time she runs because he raced the family and enjoyed it so much. I've always loved horses with him. He started as an owner when I was in high school and I feel like I grew up in racing."

A home builder and land developer in Prince George's County, Md., Fred Greene got into racing via his friend Jimmy Comber (owner of Jimmy Comber's Supper Club in Brentwood) who had horses with Mitchell.

LANE'S END

Greene soon became an owner too, and they found success. Two-year-old Iron Streak won his first two starts in Maryland in 1977, and went to New York to meet Affirmed and Alydar only to get injured in the stall and miss the race. In the 1980s, Bea Quality won 16 races, topped by a Grade 3, and earned $475,604. More recently, Coach Fridge and Debbie Sue found success.

"My dad retired early, at 42, I know . . . I know . . . but he said he wanted to enjoy life and he did," said Debbie, who first partnered with her father as an owner in 2008. "He loved horse racing."

And horses and horsepeople. Fred Greene was a Grade 1 storyteller and named his horses after family and friends led by Debbie Sue for his daughter, Sweetsoutherndessa and Dessa's Dream for his wife, Coach Fridge for University of Maryland football coach Ralph Friedgen, Memory of Mitch for Mitchell, Dance With Ellie for partner Ellie Tarter, Maggie the Redhead for photographer and friend Maggie Kimmitt, Ham and Ernie, Shirleyandmargaret, and so on.

Fred Greene dealt with Alzheimer's for the last nine years of his life, but managed to go out to lunch most every day, spend winters in Florida, become a regular at the Elloree Trials run by Smith's brother Goree in South Carolina and get to the races to watch the horses run.

"He handled it with such grace," said his daughter, who lives in Annapolis. "He knew me, he loved talking about his horses and I think he had a great time until the last few weeks of his life."

He'd be thrilled with Luna Belle. The daughter of Great Notion made her debut last summer and won her third start on the dirt at Colonial Downs in August. From there she finished third in a Laurel allowance and a troubled fourth as the favorite in the Maryland Million Lassie. Since then, it's been nothing but solid performances–a second behind Buy the Best in the Smart Halo Stakes, a season-ending win in the Maryland Juvenile Filly Championship in December and the romp in the Xtra Heat.

Smith called Luna Belle an early learner.

"The way she trained and did things when I worked her with other horses she showed she had some ability," he said. "Her first start she got left at the gate so you could forget that. In a couple other races, she just had some traffic issues. She had traffic problems in the Maryland Million and got shut off down the lane, but that's part of racing."

JIM MCCUE

Cordmaker prevails in the Jennings, his 13th win and ninth in a stakes.

There was no stopping her in the $100,000 Xtra Heat, a 6-furlong early test for 3-year-old fillies at Laurel. She and jockey Denis Araujo started fifth of six early, rallied three wide on the turn and took over in the stretch to win by 6 lengths over Lassie winner Buff My Boots in 1:12.03. Luna Belle pushed her career earnings to $186,570 with three wins, a second and two thirds in eight starts.

The races get longer and tougher from here.

"She acts like she'll go a little farther the way she runs her races; that's a big plus," said Smith. "It's not like she's one dimensional. We're looking forward to her 3-year-old campaign. She's been very impressive. If we could get some good weather for a change, we might really be able to do something."

As she normally does, Debbie Greene watched from just beyond the finish line. Maybe you heard her.

"I miss my dad, I wish he was still here, but I feel like he is and he's hollering just as loud as I am and not too many people can out-yell me at the track, I can scream them home," she said. "That was the first race she ran that I didn't cry."

Back to work

The Xtra Heat and five other stakes Jan. 29 helped Laurel regain some sense of normalcy after losing several cards to weather and extended work on the dirt surface. The track didn't race from Nov. 29 through Dec. 15 and raced just once between Jan. 3 and 19 as consultants Glen Kozak (with the New York Racing Association), Jamie Richardson (Churchill Downs), John Passero and others oversaw winterization efforts. Racing returned with four cards per week Jan. 20 with the Xtra Heat and other stakes delayed a week from their original dates. Of course, early February brought more tricky weather and the Feb. 4 card was scrapped after just three races and the Feb. 5 card canceled.

Veteran Cordmaker started the stakes lineup with a victory in the $75,000 Jennings for Maryland-breds. Trained by Rodney Jenkins for Hillwood Stable, the son of Curlin won for the 13th time and added his second Jennings to his 2018 score.

One race later, Three Diamonds Farm's Kiss the Girl won the $75,000 Geisha for Maryland-breds. Trained by Mike Trombetta, the daughter of Into Mischief and the Hard Spun mare Spin the Bottle collected her seventh win and pushed her earnings to $396,686. Three Diamonds also picked up a stakes score with New York-bred Time Limit, trained by Mike Maker, in the $100,000 What A Summer.

Pennsylvania-bred Witty won the $100,000 Spectacular Bid, a 7-furlong test for 3-year-olds for owner/breeder Lizzie Merryman and her son/trainer McLane Hendriks. The son of Great Notion coasted home by 7¾ lengths to win for the third time in four starts (with a second). Out of the Congrats mare Zeezee Zoomzoom, the gray gelding is a half-brother to graded stakes winner Caravel. Hendriks started overseeing his mother's string at Fair Hill Training Center in November and won with three of his nine starters through Feb.

In his 3-year-old debut, Pennsylvania-bred Witty made light work of the Spectacular Bid Stakes.

5. Witty prepped on the all-weather Tapeta surface at Fair Hill, but also used a dirt tightener to get ready for Laurel.

"He went down to Pimlico and had a really nice work there," Hendriks said of a half-mile in :48.60 Jan. 19. "I've been galloping him. He's basically been running off with me in the mornings. He is just like driving a Lamborghini."

In a prep for the General George three weeks later, Wondrwherecraigis capped the stakes lineup with a front-running victory in the $100,000 Fire Plug for trainer Brittany Russell and owners Michael Dubb, The Elkstone Group, Madaket Stables and Bethlehem Stables. The son of Munnings won for the seventh time in 11 starts and pushed his earnings to $407,640.

NOTES: Jerry Robb led the early trainer standings at Laurel in 2022 with 11 wins from his first 26 starts and a two-win lead over Claudio Gonzalez with Anthony Farrior another win back in third. Robb's wins included two with Mama G's Wish and doubles Jan. 1 and 30 . . . Victor Carrasco and Jevian Toledo led the jockeys with 14 wins each. ◆

Divine Intervention

Maryland-bred filly rewards Buckley, eyes chance at big time with Eclipse

BY PAUL HALLORAN

JIM MCCUE

Exercise rider Erin Swope, who also works in the finance department at MHBA, put Divine Huntress through her paces at Pimlico last fall. At left, breeder/owner/trainer Rick Buckley.

As he always does, Rick Buckley had a number in mind when he brought his Divining Rod filly to the 2020 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall yearling sale at Timonium, Md.

"Sixteen thousand," he said. "The last live bid was $15,500 and I bid $16,000 [to buy her back]."

All it would have taken is one more bid–at $16,500–for Buckley to sell. That bid never came and Buckley went home with what is already a horse of his lifetime, one who could end up in the Kentucky Oaks-G1 starting gate May 6.

Divine Huntress, a Maryland-bred out of the Housebuster mare Thrill Seeker, may not have sufficiently impressed the Timonium buyers Oct. 6, 2020, but she certainly caught the eye of Graham Motion Dec. 13, 2021 when she won a 7-furlong maiden special weight at Parx Racing. Motion had Misty Mauve in the race and, after Divine Huntress easily dispatched her, he immediately texted his racing manager, Jane Buchanan, who was simultaneously texting him. They were thinking the same thing: "Let's buy that filly."

Motion and Buchanan reached out to Aron Wellman of Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and urged him to watch the replay.

"I punched up the race and loved what I saw," Wellman said. "It wasn't so much the margin of victory [2¼ lengths] as it was how visually impressive she was. She showed an incredible amount of tractability, exhibited several gears, rated, made a big move and was able to sustain it. She won geared down and galloped out beautifully. Those are the type of horses we look to buy off the racetrack."

And that's exactly what Wellman did, working out a deal that provided Eclipse with a majority ownership, but allowed Buckley and a handful of partners to maintain a share and stay along for what could turn out to be a wild ride.

"Rick and his partners consider Divine Huntress their baby," Wellman said. "They did all the work and we were fortunate enough to swoop in. I'm grateful to Rick and his partners for the opportunity to assume management of the filly. I value Rick's opinion. He's an astute horseman and he knows the filly intimately. It's a team effort."

Buckley is happy to still be in the lineup.

"In the back of my mind, I knew it was going to be difficult to manage the filly in Maryland," said Buckley, whose small stable is based at Pimlico. "I wasn't in a position to uproot my whole stable. My decision [to sell] was based on where the filly would go. I've known Graham for several decades and he does a good job with young fillies. He's located in Maryland for part of the year so we would have the opportunity to earn breeder bonuses."

Eclipse's investment looked pretty shrewd when Divine Huntress made her first start for the new connections, a two-turn allowance at Parx Jan. 19 which she won by 12¾ lengths as the 3-5 favorite, setting up for a start in the Rachel Alexandra-G2 at Fair Grounds, a Kentucky Oaks prep, Feb. 19.

"We bought her with the intention of developing her into an Oaks filly if she's good enough," Wellman said. "She's going to have to prove it on the playing field."

That Divine Huntress was in a position to attract the attention of an operation like Eclipse—which in 11 years has won 18 Grade 1 stakes and more than 100 stakes, including the Belmont, two Breeders' Cups and the Queen Mary at Royal Ascot—is a testament to the patience of Buckley, who bred the filly in partnership with Dr. Thomas Bowman and his wife, Chris, and Buckley's Long Valley Stables partner Josh Dreiband.

Buckley and Bowman bought Maryland-bred Thrill Seeker in December 2017 in foal to Lookin At Lucky and bred her the next spring to Divining Rod. Divine Huntress was foaled May 17, 2019. When she didn't sell at Timonium in 2020, Buckley sent her to Clovis Crane in Pennsylvania for early lessons.

The reports were tepid.

"There was no boasting on his part," Buckley said. "He said she was OK, but nothing flashy. She was small and had a lot of growing to do."

Buckley turned her out for three months and she returned to training in March 2021. He rode her himself for a few weeks before turning her over to exercise rider Erin Swope.

"I told her the filly is pretty special," Buckley said. "She's very reserved, has an amazing stride, good cardio and a great mind. And she still had a lot of growing to do."

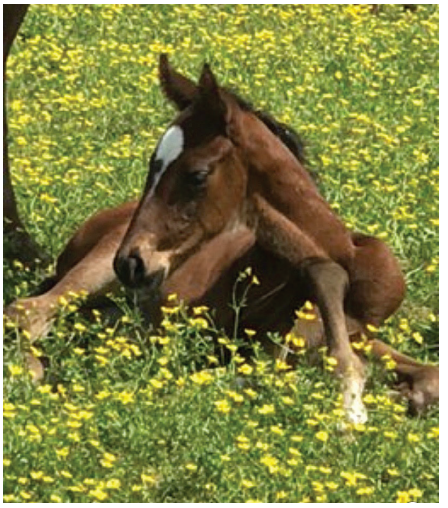
Buckley worked her four times in May and June, but she injured a hoof while trying to kick a fly and that put her out for a few months.

"I was careful not to push her," he said. "She kept moving forward and kept growing. She blossomed into a big, beautiful filly. If you want a career horse, sometimes you have to take your time. This filly is the perfect example. If I had pushed the envelope in June, she could have been toast by the end of the year."

When Divine Huntress returned to training she worked six more times in preparation for her debut, a maiden special weight at Laurel on Nov. 12. There were nine 2-year-old fillies in the race; eight were sent off at odds ranging from 7-2 to 8-1; Divine Huntress was 57-1.

Breaking last from post two on a muddy track, she was almost 10 lengths back after a quarter-mile before starting a move that would take her six-wide on the turn on the way to placing third. Buckley was more than pleased.

"She took everything in stride," he said. "She took mud in her face well and cruised up to horses. Everything we had seen from her in the mornings made it easy for her when she faced adversity in the afternoon. I felt really good about her that day."



Divine Huntress as a foal at Roland Farm.

Good enough to consider running her in the Maryland Juvenile Filly Championship, but when the weather and surface issues at Laurel turned the race into somewhat of a moving target, Buckley opted for the maiden at Parx, resulting in her getting her picture taken.

Taking pictures is something in which Buckley is well-versed, having worked as an equine photographer for about 12 years starting in 1985. A shot of Bet Twice and Alysheba from the 1987 Preakness earned kudos from renowned photographer Tony Leonard, who encouraged Buckley to pursue a career behind the lens. He ended up working for magazines, advertising agencies and stallion farms. His first trip to Saratoga was as a passenger in Dickie Small's truck as they brought Broad Brush in for the 1987 Whitney.

"It took off," Buckley said, but the more he photographed the top horses and trainers, the more he was pulled to a career on the backstretch.

"I was photographing all these people doing something I was cut out to do," he said. "My career put me in the barns of the best Thoroughbred trainers in the world—[D. Wayne] Lukas, Shug [McGaughey]. I saw all the best horses, so I know how a top-class operation runs."

Buckley has trained on and off since 1993, though as of Feb. 15 he only had 265 starts with 22 wins and $446,383 in earnings. He and Bowman focus on the breeding end of the business, with the goal of selling yearlings at the sales. If they don't sell, Buckley typically buys out Bowman and races the horses as Long Valley Stables.

"I'd rather breed and develop young horses and do it the right way," Buckley said. "With the purses and breeder bonuses it makes sense to breed horses. I think we figured out the best approach. We sell the ones that look the best. If they don't bring what we want, we keep them and develop them and make sure their first start is in Maryland. That gives them a better chance of staying in Maryland and allows us to have breeder bonuses."

You can't be afraid to make adjustments, however, so when Divine Huntress escaped from the relative anonymity of a maiden race on a December Monday at Parx and caught the fancy of one of the leading racing syndicates in the country, Buckley had no qualms about selling. He was able to maintain a share along with Dreiband and a quartet of minority partners who had bought in before the maiden win: equine artist Michael Geraghty, Jim Sixeas, Rick Refuge and Dan Farley. Buckley gave them the opportunity to cash out when the Eclipse deal was struck, but they all stayed in.

"This is our first venture to be on the inside with one of these operations," Buckley said. "Aron does a fantastic job. I couldn't be happier. He and Graham include me in all decisions. We reduced the risk by partnering with Eclipse and it puts the filly in the best position she can be in. Graham is better suited to manage this type of racehorse than I am."

The sky could be the limit for Divine Huntress and Buckley, too, who left Maryland with his wife, Stacy, on Feb. 11 to climb Mount Kilimanjaro, one of the Seven Summits as the highest mountain in Africa at 19,341 feet. His plan was to watch the Rachel Alexandra Stakes from about 14,000 feet.

He would really love to be watching the Kentucky Oaks from ground level at Churchill Downs on the first Friday in May. ◆

Springing Up

New course at Aiken, new direction at Foxfield lead way as season nears

BY SEAN CLANCY

Sadly outgrown. It goes for ponies, bunk beds, sedans, hockey skates . . . and steeplechase race meets.

The Aiken Steeplechase simply outgrew its 1-mile turf oval wedged in a residential area of Aiken, S.C., a spot that hosted its spring meet since 1967. That day, Sandhill Flight beat the boys in the Imperial Cup for future Hall of Fame trainer Mickey Walsh and jockey Calvin Moore. Five races were offered for a total of $11,255, a revival from the original Aiken Steeplechase held over the "mile track" in the Hitchcock Woods. Austin Brown, C.P. Dubose Jr., C.W. Stitzer, J.M. Gaver and J.E. Ryan presided in the steward's stand. Dale Thiel was the paddock judge. Jack Cooper was the clerk of scales. The race was sparsely attended, blamed on competition from the Masters Golf Tournament, 20 miles down Augusta Aiken Road.

The former schooling grounds of steeplechase great F. Ambrose Clark served its purpose for over a half-century, the Imperial Cup becoming the first hurdle stakes of the season, but the seams were bursting. The Aiken Steeplechase, the tenant, had a waiting list for its spring meet and the Aiken Horse Park, the landlord, had plans to expand its horse show facility. Something had to give.

On March 26, the Aiken Steeplechase will inaugurate a new course and a new era, hosting five races for $90,000 over a 1-mile trioval course in the middle of 140 acres of solitude.

For Aiken Steeplechase president Paul Sauerborn, it will be the culmination of a four-year search for a venue and a 34-year stint on the board.

"We were in a very comfortable position but the track we left was not a steeplechase track, it was a turf track for training flat horses, but when you don't have to pay rent . . ." Sauerborn said. "It worked for a number of years but when you have the numbers of people we've got, we were oversubscribed at our spring meet, we knew there was pent-up demand. We said collectively, 'We've got to go, we've got to find a new home.' "

They found it.

After looking out of town—the Field of Dreams "Build it and they will come" approach—the Aiken Steeplechase eventually found a jewel, just 2 miles from the bucolic downtown of a quintessential southern town. The Aiken City Council approved a grant of $1 million and the Aiken Steeplechase purchased the property in 2019. The parcel, basically woods and overgrown farmland, was gradually turned into a racecourse with irrigation, underground electrical, cambered turns—everything a racecourse wants, needs. Most importantly, there is room to grow.

"The city enjoys the races, we couldn't have done it without their help, they see the value, and it's highly supported by the community. And outside our community," Sauerborn said. "We have a mission and a vision and it's changing with this new property. It's been rewarding. We've had some significant gifts given to us to help, it's not all we need but it's a good start. We're excited. We're pushing hard."

The Aiken Steeplechase retrofitted railside parking from the old course into the new course, so neighbors will be neighbors but it's certainly a different feel, a different look. Railside and second row parking are sold out. Organizers added 12 corporate spaces, created 12 terrace boxes, incorporated a guarantor tent space for up to 500 people, a winner's circle tent area for 300. Two months out, sales were ahead of schedule. In addition to the steeplechase races, there will be stick-horse races, a village of shops, a paddock playground for kids, pony rides, carriage parade—yes, a community event. All powered by executive director Jessica Miller and a volunteer board, custodians of the spring and fall meets which have donated more than $1.5 million to local charities.

"It's been very challenging. We have a working board, our bylaws say if you're on our board, you're going to be working, it's not come in and vote on things or talk about things, it's roll-up-your-sleeves time," Sauerborn said. "It's a mixed bag, they're not all horsemen, we have businesspeople, we have developers, we have cost and schedule people that have dealt with project work. We were covering a lot of the elements that other entities might have to pay for that service. I'm very proud of our organization. It takes a team to make it work. It's going to work. We're going to make it work."

Welcome anew.

■ A new name, one that everyone would soon become familiar with, was added to the NSHA spring schedule in 1978. Foxfield, which started as a dream for meet sponsor Mariann de Tejada, blossomed into reality with instant success and notoriety as one of the best run race meetings in the country—and all that in its inaugural undertaking.

That's how Charlie Colgan and Bill Gallo described the Foxfield Races in the sport's annual yearbook, American Steeplechasing, in 1978. The aptly named House Warming won the opener on a wet Saturday afternoon on the rolling course that spring. Such a success, the Charlottesville, Va. meet added a fall renewal that year and, indeed, became a destination stop on the steeplechase circuit. Raymie Woolfe's robustly packed natural fences . . . Dosdi (Arg) vs. Juggernaut (Fr) over timber . . . Zaccio vs. Sailor's Clue over brush . . . Simon Shaw booting home de Tejada's Paddy's Punch (Ire) in 1982, nine editions of the iconic Grand National . . . Douglas Lees' Eclipse Award shot of Buzz Hannum and Master's Degree (GB) . . . Victorian Hill's Shangri La through the '90s.

And then hard times.

The Foxfield Races slipped down the ladder of notoriety on the circuit and gradually lost its allure in the local community. Purses dwindled. Attendance plummeted. And rumors of a pending sale of the 179-acre haven to developers circulated. De Tejada, who died in 1983, had written in her will that she wanted the races to continue in perpetuity and the land to remain the same. De Tejada's lovechild wound up in court, its future as shaky as Zaccio's tendons when he won that match race in 1981.

The Mount Harmon Plantation in Cecil County, Md., will host a new point-to-point in April.

A six-year tug of war has now been resolved. The land was put into conservation easement through the Albemarle County Easement Authority in 2019. A new group, Foxfield Racing, a subsidiary of Garth Road Preservation, led by Dr. Reynolds Cowles and Jack Sanford Jr. signed three five-year leases to operate the races and bring Foxfield back to its heyday.

"It was strongly rumored in the community that Foxfield was going to be developed, realtors were chomping at the bit," said Cowles, who worked as a veterinarian at the first meet in 1978. "That keyed the community, as a result, a suit was filed in local court to stop any development along the lines that it did not adhere to Mrs. de Tejada's will when she set up Foxfield. That went back and forth and got a little ugly in the community, the suit wasn't the right way to go but it did get everybody's attention and we might not have gotten there otherwise."

There is an eight-race card worth $150,000, including the Daniel Van Clief Memorial, a $50,000 hurdle stakes, April 30. It's the beginning of the revitalization of an integral meet to a sport that can't afford to lose spokes in its perilous wheel.

The revitalization started with the newly formed organization which took over in June 2020. Leaders enlisted local support from what they called the Founders' Circle, which raised desperately needed funds. With executive director Kelsey Cox at the helm, the vision is to return Foxfield to a premier meet on the circuit, and also to return it to a community leader which supports local charities. The races donated $50,000 to the local Habitat for Humanity chapter last fall. The key is to host an event that is equally interesting to college students, corporate sponsors, equine enthusiasts, steeplechase aficionados and the local community.

"The community walked away from it. We lost our participation. The locals would go in the fall, but they didn't go in the spring," Cowles said of a meet known as much for wild college parties as decent horse racing. "Racing is a natural vehicle for the countryside to get behind to further the development of community effort. It's racing and community, it's open space and land preservation. It's all four."

With all that in mind, Foxfield will introduce an entertainment center for the college crowd. The fenced-in area will operate like a beer garden at a sporting event, offering entertainment, a big screen to watch the races and lawful purchase and consumption of alcohol.

"We want to be a better neighbor, if we can control the student alcohol problem, we will have taken a major step forward," Cowles said. "It's a feel-good story right now. I won't say it was without difficulty, but we have a great team, a great board and everybody is pulling together. When you have talented people dedicated to a vision it makes the work go well."

Welcome back.

■ As established steeplechase meets adjust and audible through uncharted waters of 2022, though far closer to normal after Covid-wracked seasons in 2020 and 2021, a new meet will make its debut this spring. The Mount Harmon Wicomico Hunt Point-to-Point jumps onto the steeplechase schedule, finding a spot for its inaugural running April 10. A 10-race card that includes pony races, timber races and a flat race is scheduled for the Earleville venue in Cecil County, Md.

Like a lot of great things, it came out of a card game. In between hands of scat, Jay Meister asked his friend Jeremy Rothwell if he knew of any land for a new point-to-point in the Mid-Atlantic area. Former rider Meister and former trainer/rider Brooke Boyer had run a point-to-point at Fair Hill for a few years but needed a new home.

Rothwell knew of a spot—the Mount Harmon Plantation, a 200-acre gem on a peninsula formed by creeks and inlets of the Sassafras River. He connected Meister and Boyer with Mount Harmon president Steve Isaacson, they revved up the Wicomico Hunt Club and the Friends of Mount Harmon Plantation Inc., alas, the sport has a new opportunity and Mount Harmon has a new gig to go along with its Revolutionary War reenactments and paper chases.

"We've been looking since we left Fair Hill. In my mind, we wanted a location that would be a good timber course and I wanted it to be in Maryland so it could be part of the Delaware Valley Point-to-Point Association and the Maryland Steeplechase Association," Meister said. "It's a beautiful location. The Mt. Harmon folks and the Wicomico Hunt Club are a tremendous group of people. Their financial concerns are behind them and now it's just making sure we get horses there."

The meet found a niche spot on a weekend when there aren't any National Steeplechase Association races. The Old Dominion Hounds Point-to-Point in Virginia and the Elkridge-Harford Hunt Point-to-Point in Maryland hold their traditional spots Saturday and Mount Harmon Wicomico takes the open Sunday slot. The 3-mile timber course includes 21 fences – post-and-rail, stake-and-bounds and a board fence. The card includes the H. Brooks Durkee Memorial maiden timber and the Wicomico Hunt Cup for open timber horses.

"We would have to do some work to be able to hold an NSA meet there. We need to get this year under our belt and get feedback from the riders on how the course really rode. For me, it looks like a tremendous school," Meister said. "We built solid-looking timber fences, not large, like a Marlborough type fence more than a Manor type fence. Horses will look at them, they should jump them well. We wanted a place good for the horses and the riders and then we'll have to figure out how to make it as good as possible for the spectators. We are getting a lot of support. Let's hope it's sunny and 60 degrees."

Welcome aboard.

LOOKING AHEAD

The NSA's spring calendar starts at Aiken, and lists 16 stops through May. Total purses surpass $2.3 million, not quite 2019 numbers but far ahead of the last two seasons. After racing in late June last year, the Iroquois meet in Tennessee returns to its traditional weekend May 14 and offers $360,000 in purses headed by the $150,000 Iroquois-G1. The Virginia Gold Cup's $390,000 card tops all spring meets by total purses and offers a little bit of everything with two hurdle stakes, a timber stakes and a flat stakes May 7.

Other highlights include Middleburg Spring ($215,000 in purses) April 23 headlined by the Temple Gwathmey Handicap, plus Maryland's major timber meets My Lady's Manor (April 16), Grand National (April 23) and the Maryland Hunt Cup (April 30).

Point-to-points get going early in Virginia with Rappahannock March 5 while Maryland action starts with the Foxhall Farm Cup team chase March 20. In addition to the new point-to-point at Mt. Harmon, Florida gets in on the act as a point-to-point with the inaugural Florida Steeplechase at Ocala March 5. ■

$300,000 Lukas Classic-G3

For all his exploits, Knicks Go never raced in Maryland. It may be the only thing he missed.

The now 6-year-old gray began life like any other Maryland-bred while being raised at GreenMount Farm in Glyndon. He sold as a weanling at Keeneland November for $40,000 in 2016. At the time, it was a nice step for GreenMount's entry into the commercial market.

Pinhooked to Keeneland September by Woods Edge Farm as a yearling, Knicks Go joined the Korea Racing Authority for $87,000. He never ran in Korea either, but served as a source of pride for the country's Thoroughbred industry, Maryland and the Moores (regulars at his races).

"I used to as a little girl imagine this, and in my wildest dreams think of things like this," said breeder Angie Moore after the 2021 Whitney at Saratoga. "But this is more than a dream come true."

Knicks Go won his debut at Ellis Park in July 2018, upset the Breeders' Futurity-G1 at Keeneland in October and finished second in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Churchill Downs en route to state honors as champion 2-year-old male. He weathered eight losses as a 3-year-old as the KRA and trainer Ben Colebrook chased the Triple Crown trail, then finished with a flourish.

Knicks Go won eight of his final 11 starts–including Grade 1 tallies in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile, Pegasus World Cup, Whitney and Breeders' Cup Classic–all after joining trainer Brad Cox's barn in 2020. The success produced Maryland-bred Horse of the Year and champion older male titles in 2020 and 2021 and the same awards nationally in 2021.

The ride came to an end in January as Knicks Go finished second while trying to defend his Pegasus title. Retired to stud as the second-richest Maryland-bred in history with $9,258,135 in earnings (second only to Cigar's $9,999,815), Knicks Go will stand at Kentucky's Taylor Made Farm for $30,000 ❧

Joe

2021 Maryland-bred Champion 2-Year-Old Male

Jim McCue

B.c., 2019, Declaration of War—Battle Bridge, by Arch.
Bred and owned by The Elkstone Group. Trained by Mike Trombetta.
Foaled at C-Dog Farm, Chesapeake City.

$100,000 Maryland Juvenile Championship

Named for owner/breeder Stuart Grant's friend from Delaware, President Joe Biden, Joe the horse won two of three starts in 2021–opening with a fifth going 5½ furlongs on the turf at Laurel Park in October and then trouncing six others in a mile dirt race at the track in November. Off that score, he took down the $100,000 Maryland Juvenile Championship at Laurel in December.

Trained by Mike Trombetta, Joe earned $93,580 in 2021 and stretched his winning streak to three by taking his 2022 debut–and first two-turn start–at Laurel Jan. 23. Trombetta and Grant won't get ahead of themselves, but mapped out a cautious road to bigger opportunities this spring.

"Stuart's not getting caught up in Derby fever," said the trainer. "He'll let the horse develop and if he becomes a good enough 3-year-old he'd be happy to go the [Federico] Tesio-Preakness route if it develops. There's plenty of spacing, plenty of time."

Trombetta loved his horse's progression, and was happy to answer the two-turn question in allowance company.

"I couldn't not take advantage of that especially with the purse increase," he said of the 1 1/16-mile test worth $67,104 including Maryland-bred premiums. "It was the right thing to do for the horse. It's important to do things like that. We got that question answered. He was good, professional, did it like you'd want him to and now we can kind of wait and see what to do next."

Grant bought Joe's dam Battle Bridge for $55,000 as a broodmare prospect in 2013. The two-time winner's first foal, Irony of Reality (a daughter of Animal Kingdom) won eight races and placed in a Grade 3 for Grant before selling at Keeneland November while carrying a foal by Mshawish.

Battle Bridge sold at the same sale for $26,000, in foal to War of Will. ❧

Luna Belle

2021 Maryland-bred Champion 2-Year-Old Filly

Jim McCue

B.f., 2019, Great Notion—Heavenly Moon, by Mojave Moon
Bred by Fred Greene Jr., Deborah Greene and Hamilton Smith.
Owned by Deborah Greene and Hamilton Smith.
Trained by Hamilton Smith. Foaled at Willowdale Farm, Butler.

$100,000 Maryland Juvenile Fillies Championship
2nd Smart Halo

Somewhere Fred Greene is smiling. Luna Belle, the last foal the longtime owner/breeder saw before he died in August 2020, has blossomed into a Maryland-bred champion.

And she's not finished.

After needing three starts to break her maiden, at Colonial Downs last summer, she's put together nothing but quality starts including a third in allowance company, a troubled fourth in the Maryland Million Lassie, a second in the Smart Halo Stakes and a title-clinching win in the Maryland Juvenile Fillies Championship at Laurel Dec. 18. For good measure, she opened her 3-year-old campaign with a victory in the Xtra Heat Stakes, also at Laurel.

Trainer and co-breeder Hamilton Smith trained Luna Belle's dam Heavenly Moon for Greene and offered a favorable comparison.

"Luna Belle is a little better at this stage," he said. "Mom wasn't a stakes horse, she won some allowance races and things though, and she has been a good producer for us."

Fred Greene campaigned horses with Smith for years, and the trainer's friend Steward Mitchell before that, and brought in daughter Debbie Greene in 2008. She's still involved, as co-owner and co-breeder with Smith.

"He would be very happy to be here to watch this filly perform," Smith said of Fred Greene, "and I know Debbie has enjoyed it."

Boarded at Dr. Mike Harrison's Willowdale Farm in Reisterstown, Heavenly Moon is in foal to Golden Lad with plans to return to Great Notion this year. Other foals include Run Bucky Run, a 2-year-old full-brother to Luna Belle, plus three-time winner Chinquapin and stakes-placed The Poser and Moon Virginia. ❧

Jaxon Traveler

2021 Maryland-bred Champion 3-Year-Old Male

Dk.b./br.c., 2018, by Munnings—Listen Boy, by After Market.
Bred by Dr. and Mrs. A. Leonard Pineau.
Owned by West Point Thoroughbreds and Marvin Delfiner.
Trained by Steve Asmussen. Foaled at Three Pines Farm, Reisterstown.

$200,000 Bachelor, $75,000 Star de Naskra
2nd Chick Lang-G3, Woodstock, Gazebo, Gravesend
3rd Quick Call-G3, Steel Valley Sprint, Allied Forces

Jim McCue

Like a local kid who made it big, Jaxon Traveler only shows up in Maryland for special occasions now and in 2021 those included a second in the Chick Lang Stakes-G3 at Pimlico in May and a victory in the Star de Naskra back at the Baltimore track in August. Otherwise, he was on the road in 2021 with stops at Oaklawn Park, Woodbine, Saratoga, Belmont Park, Mahoning Valley and Aqueduct.

The son of Munnings opened his 2021 at Oaklawn, finishing second in the Gazebo Stakes and winning the Bachelor. Second to Steve Asmussen-trained stablemate Mighty Mischief in the Lang, Jaxon Traveler also placed in the Woodstock at Woodbine and the Quick Call at Saratoga before landing the Star de Naskra. There, he made light work of two rivals to win the Maryland-bred or -sired race by 3 lengths. He closed with three more stakes placings in the Allied Forces, Steel Valley Sprint and Gravesend.

The nine-start campaign included two wins, four seconds, three thirds and $324,948 earned.

Sold for $80,000 as a yearling, and then $140,000 as a 2-year-old to current owners West Point Thoroughbreds and Melvin Delfiner, Jaxon Traveler repeated on his 2-year-old title of 2020 for breeders Lenny and Pat Pineau. The Pineaus purchased his dam Listen Boy in 2015. Her other foals include nine-time winner Nuclear Option and winners My Legacy and My Candy Girl. ❧

Street Lute

2021 Maryland-bred Champion 3-Year-Old Filly

Ch.f., 2018, by Street Magician—Alottalute, by Midnight Lute
Bred by Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowman and Dr. Brooke Bowman.
Owned by Lucky 7 Stables. Trained by John J. Robb.
Foaled at Dance Forth Farm, Chestertown.

$100,000 Xtra Heat, $100,000 Wide Country,
$100,000 Stormy Blues, $100,000 Tax Free Shopping
3rd MD Million Distaff, Safely Kept, Beyond The Wire

Jim McCue

Like 3-year-old male champion Jaxon Traveler, Street Lute repeated on her 2-year-old title of 2020. Four stakes wins and $276,040 landed the prize in a 10-start campaign which started in January and ended in November.

Street Lute opened 2021 with back-to-back stakes triumphs in the Xtra Heat and Wide Country at Laurel in January and February. Third in the Beyond The Wire in March, she tried tougher company in the Miss Preakness-G3, but settled for sixth. She bounced back with a victory in the Stormy Blues at Pimlico, a half-length score over Malibu Beauty and Prodigy Doll after spotting the field a few lengths at the start.

Seventh in the Charles Town Oaks-G3, Street Lute rebounded again to take the Tax Free Shopping Distaff at Delaware Park in late September—again at the immediate expense of Malibu Beauty.

Street Lute closed with thirds, behind Hello Beautiful in the Maryland Million Distaff and Belle of the North in the Safely Kept.

The campaign didn't quite rival her first, where she won five of six, but did confirm her quality and pushed her career earnings to $566,260 for Joey Lloyd's Lucky 7 Stables.

Purchased by trainer John "Jerry" Robb for $10,500 as a yearling, Street Lute recently returned to training toward a 2022 campaign after off-season surgery on her right eye.

"She was off December and January, to get a little eye surgery touch-up in that one eye of hers, and she's been back in training for about three weeks now," Robb said in February.

Her half-brother by Editorial, Alottahope, also trained by Robb after a private purchase, placed second to Joe in the 2021 Maryland Juvenile Championship Stakes and had won twice in four starts through Feb. 15.

Alottalute is also the dam of a 2-year-old full-sister to Street Lute, Mama's Eyes, and was expecting a Game Winner foal. ❧

Hello Beautiful

2021 Maryland-bred Champion Older Female

Dk.b./br.m., 2017, Golden Lad—Hello Now, by Tiznow.
Bred by Hillwood Stables. Owned by Madaket Stables, Albert Frassetto, Mark Parkinson, K-Mac Stable and Magic City Stables. Trained by Brittany Russell.
Foaled at Dark Hollow Farm, Upperco.

$100,000 What a Summer, $100,000 Alma North, $100,000 Weather Vane, $100,000 MD Million Distaff
2nd Shine Again

Jeff Snyder

Hello Beautiful made her final season on the track her best, as she won four stakes and placed in another to bring home the 2021 Maryland-bred champion older female crown.

Owned by Madaket Stables, Albert Frassetto, Mark Parkinson, K-Mac Stable and Magic City Stables, the 4-year-old daughter of Maryland sire Golden Lad opened with a victory in January's What a Summer Stakes at Laurel.

Despite a fifth in the Barbara Fritchie-G3 (her only start without Lasix) the next month, Hello Beautiful enjoyed a freshening before returning to finish second in the Shine Again in June at Pimlico, before reeling off wins in the Alma North Stakes in July, Weather Vane Stakes in September and a historic win in the Maryland Million Distaff.

Adding to victories in the Lassie in 2019 and Distaff in 2020, she became just the seventh horse to win three Maryland Million races.

She closed her eight-start season with fifths in the Politely and Willa On the Move stakes to finish the year with $270,710 earned. Trained by Brittany Russell, the eight-time stakes winner sold for $410,000 at Keeneland January to Larry Best's OXO Equine. She will be bred to Best's stallion Instagrand.

Edged for divisional honors by graded winner Sharing in 2019 and 2020, Hello Beautiful landed her first Maryland-bred title after earning $587,820 in her career.

Bred by Hillwood Stables, Hello Beautiful and her stakes-winning half-brother Hello Hot Rod are the two winners from three starters out of the Tiznow mare Hello Now, who is expecting a foal by Hoppertunity this year. ❧

Aloha West

2021 Maryland-bred Champion Sprinter

Dk.b./br.h., 2017, Hard Spun—Island Bound, by Speightstown.
Bred by Bob Manfuso and Katy Voss.
Owned by Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners.
Trained by Wayne Catalano.
Foaled at Chanceland Farm, West Friendship.

$2,000,000 Breeders' Cup Sprint-G1, 2nd Phoenix-G2

Bill Denver/Eclipse Sportswire

In nine starts in his first season as a racehorse, Aloha West went from breaking his maiden on debut at Oaklawn Park in February to capturing the Breeders' Cup Sprint-G1 at Del Mar by a flared nostril in November, earning the title of 2021 Maryland-bred champion sprinter for Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners.

Breeders Katy Voss and the late Bob Manfuso sold the yearling Aloha West for $160,000 to Gary and Mary West.

Unraced at 2 and 3, the colt joined Eclipse via a private purchase after his second start and stayed with trainer Wayne Catalano. Next out, Aloha West finished second by a nose at Keeneland, followed by an allowance win at Churchill and a fourth in the Kelly's Landing Stakes in June.

A trip to Saratoga late that summer yielded results, as Aloha West secured back-to-back allowance victories: winning by a nose in August and by 2 ¾ lengths in September.

Back at Keeneland in October, Aloha West stepped up to graded company in the Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix-G2, where he rallied in the final furlong and finished a neck behind favorite Special Reserve. Aloha West saved his best for last, with a powerful move down the stretch to catch Dr. Schivel and win the Breeders' Cup Sprint by a nose.

The sixth Maryland-bred to win a Breeders' cup race, Aloha West finished the year with five wins, two seconds and $1,311,068 in earnings, which earned him a spot as an Eclipse Award finalist for male sprinter.

He is one of four winners from five starters for Island Bound, a graded stakes-winning daughter of Speightstown. The mare is expecting a foal by Golden Lad this year. ❧

Field Pass

2021 Maryland-bred Champion Turf Horse

After a campaign that earned him 2020 Maryland-bred champion 3-year-old honors, it's no surprise that Field Pass continued on the same path, traveling around the country as he added to his already long list of successes and claimed the Maryland-bred turf male championship.

Making all seven starts in graded company, the Mike Maker trainee started with a fourth in the Maker's Mark Mile-G1 at Keeneland, followed by an eighth in the Man o' War-G1 at Belmont Park and a fourth in the Wise Dan-G2 at Churchill Downs in June.

A trip to his home state a month later turned things around, as the 4-year-old son of Lemon Drop Kid took Pimlico's Baltimore/Washington International Turf Cup-G3 by a neck. It was just his second start–and first win–in Maryland.

Despite an eighth in the Fourstardave-G1 at Saratoga, Field Pass ramped up again with a second in the Knickerbocker-G3 at Belmont in October before traveling across the country for the Seabiscuit Handicap-G3 at Del Mar, which he won by a head over Sacred Life (Fr).

Purchased for $37,000 as a yearling, Three Diamonds Farm's colt earned $347,250, to lift his earnings to $913,143.

Field Pass was bred by New Jersey resident Mark Grier, who foaled his mares in Maryland after breeding in Kentucky for a number of years. Grier raced Field Pass' dam Only Me (by Runaway Groom) and kept her as a broodmare. The dam of two named foals (both winners) has since been retired from breeding. ❧

2021 MHBA Stallion of the Year: GREAT NOTION

Great Notion was Maryland's most dominant stallion once again, securing his sixth consecutive Stallion of the Year title. He led the state in every category on the general sires lists, and was the sire of nine stakes winners, surpassing all other Maryland sires.

His 2021 stakes winners included state-bred champion juveniles, Maryland Million winners sprinting and going long, 3-year-olds on the main track and older horses on the slop. They could do it all. He was represented by at least one stakes winner in five crops.

Now 22, Great Notion has stood his entire career at Northview Stallion Station in Chesapeake City. ❧

2021 MHBA Broodmare of the Year: ISLAND BOUND

Charles Toler

Chanceland Farm's Island Bound reached the stratosphere as a producer in 2021 as the dam of a Breeders' Cup winner. Her 4-year-old son Aloha West, the 2021 Maryland-bred champion sprinter and a finalist for an Eclipse Award, got up at the wire to win the Sprint by a nose.

Island Bound's other runner during the year was her 3-year-old daughter Moquist, who rose through the ranks in an undefeated campaign that showed boundless potential until her tragic loss in a morning workout before her first stakes attempt.

Island Bound, now 15, was a graded stakes winner while competing for Bob Manfuso before retiring to his and Katy Voss' Chanceland Farm. The daughter of Speightstown has since produced four winners from five starters and has been bred to Maryland sires the past two years. She has a Divining Rod yearling filly and is due to foal to Golden Lad this year. ❧

2021 MHBA Breeder of the Year: BOB MANFUSO & KATY VOSS

Anne Litz

The late Bob Manfuso and his partner Katy Voss turned out many top runners over the decades at their Chanceland Farm in West Friendship. But it was hard to top a year like 2021. Manfuso, who died suddenly at the farm in early 2020, and Voss, who continues to maintain the farm, were represented by their first Breeders' Cup winner when Aloha West won the Sprint. The Maryland-bred champion sprinter of 2021 was also a finalist for an Eclipse Award.

The couple bred two other stakes winners in 2021, top state-bred older horse Cordmaker, a winner of four stakes during his 6-year-old campaign, and Maryland Million winner No More Talk. Runners bred by the couple made 157 starts, recorded 25 wins, 26 seconds and 23 thirds, and earned more than $2.3 million. Aloha West was also a finalist for Maryland-bred Horse of the Year; Cordmaker, the Maryland-bred champion older male of 2019, was a finalist for older male.

Manfuso was Breeder of the Year in 2016 after the campaign of Cathryn Sophia, which included a win in the Kentucky Oaks-G1. The filly represented four generations bred by Manfuso. ❧

2021 Renaissance Awards

A collaboration of the Maryland Horse Breeders Association, Maryland Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association and the Maryland Jockey Club, the Renaissance Awards honor the best of Thoroughbred racing in the state. In addition to Maryland-bred champions, leading breeder, broodmare and stallion, we celebrate Maryland's leading owner, trainer, and jockey and recognize an outstanding backstretch employee from each track.

Owner–Hillwood Stables

Horses owned by Ellen Charles' Hillwood Stable won 11 races at Maryland tracks in 2021, and finished second 11 times and third 20 times.

Standout runner Cordmaker had his best season with four victories, all in stakes, including the Harrison E. Johnson Memorial, Richard W. Small and Robert T. Manfuso at Laurel Park, and the Victory Gallop at Colonial Downs. The Curlin gelding, now 7, was the overall MATCH Series champion for 2021 and a finalist for Maryland-bred champion older male.

Hillwood's other stakes winner, Valued Notion, won his stakes debut in the Ben's Cat at Pimlico.

Based at Laurel Park with trainer Rodney Jenkins, Hillwood made 79 of its 82 starts in Maryland last year and overall collected more than $759,000 in earnings. A prominent Maryland breeder as well, Hillwood is the breeder of Hello Beautiful, the Maryland-bred champion older female of 2021.

Trainer–Brittany Russell

Beginning her training career in 2018, Brittany Russell followed a strong 2020 with an even stronger 2021 as her stable amassed 71 victories, 52 at Maryland tracks. She also won seven stakes with three horses in Maryland.

Russell, based at Laurel Park, trained Hello Beautiful, the Maryland-bred champion older female. Purchased by Russell as a yearling for $6,500, the now 5-year-old daughter of Golden Lad won four stakes in 2021 and earned $270,710.

Maryland-bred Whereshetoldmetogo, one of the top sprinters in the Mid-Atlantic, won the Not For Love and Howard and Sondra Bender Memorial at Laurel last year. Russell's other Maryland stakes winner was Maythehorsebwithu.

Russell's stable banked $1.92 million at Maryland tracks last season, while collecting $2.89 million overall.

Jockey–Jevian Toledo

Jevian Toledo was the picture of consistency, as he participated in every Maryland race meet and capped the season by taking the Laurel Park fall meet riding title with 50 victories.

Also the award winner in 2017, Toledo won eight stakes last year in Maryland–six at Laurel and one each at Pimlico Race Course and the Maryland State Fair at Timonium.

He reeled in 110 wins in Maryland from 595 starts for earnings of $3.86 million. Roughly half of that came during the Laurel fall meet. Overall, Toledo won 125 races in 2021 and late last year cleared the 1,200 mark in career victories. His mounts have earned more than $38 million.

Pimlico Backstretch Employee–Julio Garcia

Julio Garcia, 31, is a native of Mexico who has worked in the racing industry for about three years at Maryland tracks. He worked for Mary Eppler before joining Amanda Rawlings' team.

"I like everything about it," he said. "Just being with the horses is what I really like."

Laurel Backstretch Employee–Antoinette Charles Orellana

Maryland native Antoinette Charles Orellana, whose grandfather was a trainer, began volunteering at the barn at age 15 when her mother, Margarita, had a horse in training with Carlos Mancilla. After graduating from high school, she began working full-time at the racetrack.

Now 21, Orellana attends Howard Community College in Columbia, Md., and plans to continue her studies in the hope of becoming an equine veterinarian. ❧

Horologist honored by New Jersey Department of Agriculture

COGLIANESE PHOTOS/CHELSEA DURAND

Horologist, a multiple graded stakes winning mare, has been named the New Jersey Department of Agriculture's New Jersey-bred Thoroughbred of the Year for 2021 for the second consecutive year.

Horologist won the first start of her 5-year-old campaign in 2021in the $100,000 Top Flight Invitational Stakes at Aqueduct and was also victorious in the $120,000 Summer Colony Stakes at Saratoga. Horologist added second place finishes in the Shuvee Stakes-G3 and Beldame Stakes-G2 prior to finishing her racing career in the Breeder's Cup Distaff.

Horologist is owned by the partnership of There's A Chance Stable, Parkland Thoroughbreds, Medallion Racing, Abbondonza Racing LLC, Paradise Farms Corp. and David Staudacher.

Horologist was sold at the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale to Katsumi Yoshida for $800,000.

Horologist finished her career with nine wins in 27 career starts and $962,939 in earnings. She was bred in New Jersey by Holly Crest Farm.

Applications now being accepted for the NJ Agricultural Achievement Award

Scholarship for H.S. Seniors interested in a career in agriculture or the sciences

New Jersey residents who are entering their senior year in high school this fall and are planning a career in agriculture or science may apply for the New Jersey Agricultural Achievement Award. One winner will be selected and awarded a scholarship to honor their achievements.

The New Jersey Agricultural Achievement Award, sponsored by Dr. Amy Butewicz, a former New Jersey Equestrian of the Year, was started because of her desire to give back to the community. Worth $500, this scholarship is meant to assist its recipient in beginning their future in agriculture.

The qualifications for receiving this award include submission of an application, a resume along with an essay answering the question, "How has your involvement within your respective nominating organization helped to shape your future career choice?"

In addition, a contestant is required to be a current, active member of an organization either on the New Jersey Equine Advisory Board and/or represented at the Youth Reception portion of the New Jersey State Agricultural Convention. Each organization on the New Jersey Equine Advisory Board and a participant of the State Agricultural Convention is able to nominate a maximum of two contestants.

The winner of the Agricultural Achievement Award must attend the awards ceremony Wednesday, June 1, 2022, at the Horse Park of New Jersey.

For additional information please contact Lynn Mathews at Lynn.Mathews@ag.nj.gov.

Please mail application, resume and essay by May 16, 2022 to:

President's message

I'd like to welcome back Jim Chandley to the NCTA. He's been absent for a while but now he is back in the game with three horses he bred, one racing 3-year old filly and a couple of 2-year-olds in training, a filly and a colt. He not only bred these three youngsters, but he also bred their dams as well. His efforts were rewarded when My Dixie Lass foaled, in 2019, broke her maiden on just her second going in January. I wish him a lot of luck and blessings from the Racing Gods.

If you didn't already know, our members Bill & Carrington Price compete their horses mainly in steeplechase races. They are also the founders of the charitable Queen's Cup Steeplechase Race. The races are held annually in Mineral Springs, N.C., at Brooklandwoods. One of the area's premiere sporting and social event does not disappoint. Not only do the grounds reflect the beauty of nature in spring, but the tailgaters' food displays, the whimsical hats and stylish chapeaus adorning heads are sights to behold. The sleek Thoroughbred athletes compete at the highest levels of the sport. If you've never been, you owe it to yourself to attend.

Congratulations to the members who had horses run this reporting. Good luck to all.

/Rebecca

Racing Review

Veering from the norm, this racing review will include place and show finishers.

My Dixie Lass (Blofeld out of Missdixieactivist, by Activist) won at Penn National on Jan. 14 in race one for breeder/owner, Jim Chandley. The 3-year-old bay filly rated early at three-wide. Went out to four-wide on the far turn, at the quarter pole gained the lead, cleared the field in the stretch under mild urging. Proving she was much the best she finished 5½ lengths ahead after running one mile 70 yards in 1:44.18

Shooters Shoot (Competitive Edge out of Repeat, by Bernadini) ran second at Santa Anita Park on Jan. 2 for breeder Nancy Shuford. The 5-year-old bay gelding ran 1 1/16 miles on a fast track. Stalking the pace from the inside, the gelding moved two-wide into the stretch. He was held off by the to finish 2¼ lengths behind the front runner.

Fifty Sheas Ofgrey (Tiznow out of Coppermine, by Unbridled's Song) ran second at Parx Racing on Jan. 3 for owners Dan and Christy Shea - Shady Boy's Stable. The grey/roan gelding ran one mile on a good track. The 4-year-old raced gamely, running on the outside to vie for the lead, cleared the pack near the far turn into the stretch, a duel ensued until the final furlong where he was pass finishing only by neck behind the winner.

Honorific (Honor Code out of Doubled, by Exchanged Rate) ran third in the seventh race at The Fairgrounds on Jan. 15 for breeder Nancy Shuford. The 4-year-old grey/roan filly ran 6 furlongs on a sloppy dirt track. The filly initially laid off the pace but started to gain position going three-wide around the turn. At the top of the stretch, she made a bid, flattened out and couldn't pass the place finisher but she was 8¼ lengths ahead of the trialing pack at the line.

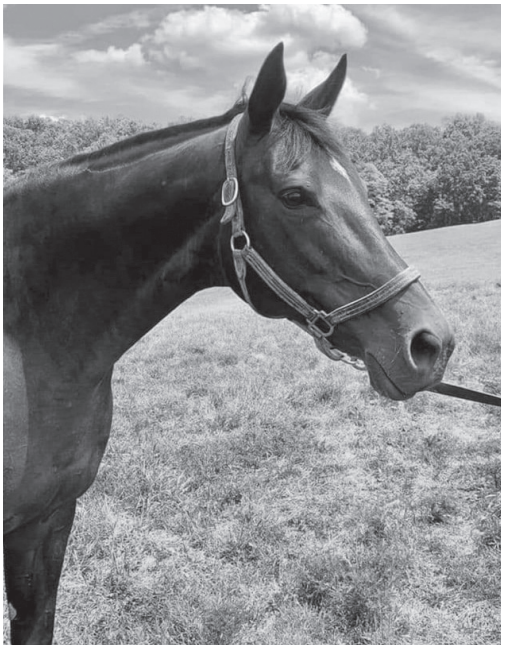
Broodmare Katarica Disco is a perfect 10

by Emily Shields

Bo Derek may have been known as a "perfect 10" when starring in the 1979 film 10, but as a broodmare Katarica Disco has 10 winners from 10 starters, and that's more impressive. Among her offspring are three stakes winners and two stakes placed runners, and daughters boasting enough pedigree to be tremendously valuable mares themselves.



NICOLE MARTIN

Katarica Disco, a 2004 daughter of Disco Rico and the Caveat mare Legal Kat, is the pride of St. Omer's Farm. Susan Quick's Maryland operation only hosts a few broodmares now, but among them are Katarica Disco and millionaire Silmaril, who is related through the foundation mare Kattegat's Pride.

Quick and her husband Stephen bought their first mare in 1977, and that was Pilgrim's Pride. Just two years later, Kattegat's Pride was born; the daughter of North Sea would have an outstanding career with 19 wins, nine seconds, and three thirds in 54 starts for earnings of $511,812. Amongst her victories were the Grade 3 Gallorette Handicap at Pimlico in 1984, and she raced from Maryland all the way to California.

When Kattegat's Pride retired, she kicked off the family tradition of being fabulous producers: she had three winners from three to race.

The only filly of the three was Kattebuck, a gray daughter of Spend a Buck who won once in 16 tries. But she would have seven winners from eight to start, including Silmaril (five for seven to date as a broodmare, including multiple stakes winner Beren) and Legal Kat (eight for eight winners from starters), who in turn became the dam of Katarica Disco.

"She was born here," Susan Quick said. "Her association with us goes all the way back to 1979. A friend was standing a stallion named Disco Rico, which is how we ended up using him." Popular Disco Rico won nine of 17 starts for earnings of $532,244, and was a seven-time stakes winner including a pair of Grade 3 events.

On the track, Katarcia Disco started only three times, winning twice. She broke her maiden at first asking at Laurel Park, scoring by 13¼ lengths at 66-1 odds, then won an allowance race before finishing off the board in the 2007 Maryland Million Oaks. Just like that, her career was over.

Barbara Wheeler of WynOaks Farm, who is married to the Quicks' son Chip, said, "The mare came off the track and my father in law was going to bring her to WynOaks to start her here. Susan was always giving him a heck of a time about bringing home more racehorses."

WynOaks Farm is the breeder of Katarica Disco's first foal, a Crypto Star filly named Cryptic Kate. She won three times, earning $95,714 for Lynda Furlong, who purhcased her as a yearling for a mere $1,500.

Pink Princess came next, and earned a whopping $572,135 the hard way. The Weigelia mare never took a stakes trophy home, but did place in the 2018 Power By Far Stakes at Parx. The hard-knocking mare ran 66 times with 42 top three efforts, mostly battling in the claiming and allowance ranks. She has since been retired and has produced one foal to date.

"My father in law took her (Katarica Disco) back the next year, and we were going to go back and forth," Wheeler said. "My mother in law owns her outright now, and she's living high on how well the mare has done."

Fat Kat was bred as a partnership between WynOaks and St. Omers Farm. The 2011 edition of the Weigelia – Katarica Disco cross won nine of 29 races including a stakes. She was also a $1,500 yearling that was pinhooked as a $50,000 juvenile, and earned $423,318.

Mischief Music, Katarica Disco's 2012 filly, was lightly raced compared to her siblings, but did win twice and has since become a producer herself, with her first starter – Count the Shells – finding the winner's circle. Mischief Music still calls St. Omers Farm home.

Grade 2-placed Disco Rose was born in 2013. She was another classy and consistent sort, running second or third in four stakes races while earning $449,280. She was purchased by LC Racing for $25,000; LC Racing would go on to purchase several of her siblings.

Another durable campaigner out of Katarica Disco is Smooth B, who was born in 2015. In 39 starts he has earned $528,288, winning the Danzig Stakes at Penn National and placing in six other black type races. Smooth B is about to embark on his sixth season at the track.

One Fat Kat, Disco Deja Vu, and Fore Harp followed, each picking up at least two wins apiece. Disco Ebo, born in 2019, became Katarica Disco's third stakes winner when the Weigelia daughter took the $200,000 Shamrock Rose at Penn National last year.

Katarica Disco's 10 winners have earned more than $2.5 million on the racetrack. "She's a nice mare, and you would never know she's 18," Quick said. "She looks like she's about four. That family ages well, Silmaril also acts like she's about two!"

Quick noted that Katarica Disco is, "a really pretty mare, big and dark," and added that her yearling Weigelia colt, who will be sold later this year, is a knockout. "He's a big, good looking dude," she said.

Kattegat's Pride is buried in the front yard of St. Omer's Farm, but through Katarica Disco, her legacy flourishes. Katarica Disco is not currently in foal, but is expected to head back to Pennsylvania stallion Weigelia for 2023. Weigelia stands at WynOaks Farm.

Few broodmares can boast that all 10 of their starters have won, but Katarica Disco is in a class of her own. Perhaps they should make a movie about her success?

A few words from the Executive Secretary

It gives me great pleasure to announce our first PA-Sired, PA-Bred Series for 2yo's!!

The series will begin this year and consist of stakes races just for PA-Sired, PA-Bred colts & fillies. So, if you currently have a 2yo, make plans to shoot for the series. More info is available on pabred.com.

This series is just another addition to what is already the best breeding program in the country. If you haven't sent your mares, don't delay. A maiden breeder award for PA-Sired PA-Breds is a whopping 50%, and 40% for all other races. Non PA-Sired awards are 25% and 20% respectively.

Plans for our annual awards banquet honoring the champions of 2021 are underway. This year's celebration will finally be held in person again! Save the date: May 13th at The Inn at Mendenhall, located on Kennett Pike in Chadds Ford. Our annual meeting will be held at the Kennett Square Country Club on May 4th so look out for invitations to both.

PA foals of 2022 have started to arrive! Send us your foal photos with lineage, foaling date and location to be included in the 2022 Foal Gallery on the website and be featured on our social media accounts. Email photos and information to pabreeder@gmail.com.

As always, if you have any questions about our program or if you're interested in joining the Thoroughbred breeding industry in Pennsylvania, please call our office at 610.444.1050. Go PA!!

Pennsylvania Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association

We ARE Pennsylvania Racing

March 2022

February 19, 2022, marked the first in-person awards banquet for our Horsemen in three years, making the celebration all the sweeter for the recipients of the 2021 Horsemen's Awards. We celebrated the triumphs of our leading horsemen and enjoyed revisiting the great races of our top horses with friends, laughter, and applause for jobs well done. Congratulations to all the winners, especially the connections of that horse-of-a-lifetime, Chub Wagon, for Daniel Lopez and George Chestnut and Trainer Lupe Preciado. Inspired by their success, we can step into the future with added determination.

Parx Madness will put Parx and our horsemen on center stage while combining the thrill of Thoroughbred racing with one of the great sports tournaments in the world, March Madness. Parx has a great stakes program on tap, starter handicaps, and increased overnight purses. Something for everyone!

2021 Parx Racing Year in Review

By Dick Jerardi

Keystone/Philadelphia Park/Parx is closing on its 50th anniversary. A strong case can be made that 2021 was the greatest year in the history of the race track.

Pennsylvania Derby Day was back, delivering the best card in the track's history, capped by Hot Rod Charlie's wire-to-wire win in the Pa. Derby, Clairiere's come-from-behind win in the Cotillion, and Jackie's Warrior's tour de force in the Gallant Bob. Hot Rod Charlie had been third in the Kentucky Derby and second in the Belmont Stakes before getting disqualified after finishing first in Haskell. The colt surely deserved a Grade I win and got one at Parx for trainer Doug O'Neill, jockey Flavien Prat, and his eclectic ownership group.

The overall Pa. Derby Day handle ($13.2 million) shattered the track record set in 2014 when California Chrome came to Parx. Speaking of handle, the track's daily average handle on its races was $2.644 million, a 71 percent increase over 2019. The track finished off the year with five new $100,000 stakes right after Christmas. The handle on those three days between Christmas and New Year's was a very impressive $14 million.

All those stakes that were not run in 2020 because of the pandemic were back in 2021. Big money attracts really good horses and that was proved again in 2021 at Parx.

Chris Griffin made his debut as Parx's announcer, succeeding Keith Jones who retired at the end of 2021. Griffin's first year was marked by his crisp calls, his selections, his videos, and his enthusiasm.

As in 2020, Jamie Ness dominated the trainer standings, with 186 wins, 107 seconds and 79 thirds, winning with a cool 34 percent of his starters. Ruben Silvera got his first jockey's title. He won 217 times from 912 mounts, with 164 seconds and 149 thirds.

Chub Wagon, the incredible Pennsylvania bred filly, was an obvious choice as 2021 Parx Horse of the Year. All she did last year was go 8-for-9 with a close second for earnings of $487,400. In the year he had his 2000th winner, Parx Hall of Famer Lupe Preciado demonstrated just as he did with Favorite Tale that when he gets a really good horse, he knows just what to do to maximize that talent.

There were so many standout performers at Parx in 2021. In addition to Chub Wagon, Beren, trained by newly minted Hall of Famer Butch Reid and Leader of the Band, trained by inaugural HOF class member John Servis, deserve special mention. Beren was voted top 3-year-old male because he had seven wins, including five stakes, in 2021. The colt won twice at Belmont Park, once at Penn National and four times at Parx.

Leader of the Band with her Monmouth Oaks win, second in the Cathryn Sophia and third in the Delaware Oaks, was a deserving winner of the best 3-year-old filly at Parx.

The 2-year-old awards went to Dance Code for the males and Disco Ebo for the fillies. Dance Code, trained by Juan Vasquez, won three times at Parx, including in the Dec. 29 $100,000 Parx Juvenile. Disco Ebo could not keep up with the super impressive Witty in the Dec. 5 Pa. Nursery, but when she ran with her own sex, she was dominating with three wins, two at Parx and one at Penn National. She won those races by a combined 26 3/4 lengths.

Chub Wagon was obviously voted champion older female. Magic Michael, with his seven wins and three seconds from 12 starts, was the champion older male for trainer Ness.

Thorny Tale was the outstanding claim of the year. Ness and Jagger Inc, claimed the horse for $12,500 on Jan. 12. The gelding won that day and five more times after that while going up the ladder.

There were so many good claiming horses at Parx in 2021, including Sevier who won an incredible 11 races for that man Ness and Why Why Paul Why for trainer Penny Pearce. The voters chose Sweet Willemina as the best claiming horse. Trainer Scott Lake claimed her for $32,000 at Churchill Downs back in June because she had all her conditions and would fit well at Parx. She did even better than he could have imagined, with seven wins, a second and a third after the claim. She blew through her conditions, then won the PTHA President's Cup and topped off her year with a win in the Dec. 4 Claiming Crown Glass Slipper at Gulfstream Park.

Racing Across the Nation

During the holiday season and into the new year, eight graduates of South Carolina training centers presented their connections with stakes winner's pictures.

On Dec. 26, Shake Em Loose trailed the field for the opening half-mile in the Heft Stakes at Laurel Park. This 2-year-old then quickly accelerated passing the field while five wide. He took the lead well into the stretch and hit the wire three-quarters of a length in front. Shake Em Loose learned his early lessons at Franklin "Goree" Smith's Elloree Training Center.

Travis Durr's Webb Carroll Training Center saw two former students capture stakes also at Laurel Park Dec. 26. Buy the Best was the 1-10 favorite in the Gin Talking and showed her superiority winning by 2 lengths. This 2-year-old filly stalked the leader while between horses before taking over the lead in upper stretch and while dueling through the lane, proved best. This was this filly's fourth win in a row and she has back-to-back stakes wins having captured the Smart Halo Stakes also at Laurel Park in November.

Miss Leslie also won two consecutive stakes at Laurel Park. After being best in the Thirty Eight Go Go Stakes in November, she came back to win the Carousal Stakes Dec. 26. Having only one beat after the first half-mile, Miss Leslie gobbled up the competition while four-wide and drew away to cross the finish line 3¾ lengths ahead of the rest. This was her third win in a row and seventh lifetime.

The Randy and Kala Rentz graduate Kaylasaurus added to South Carolina's good fortune at Laurel Park Dec. 26 as she proved best in the Willa On the Move Stakes. Kaylasaurus trailed the field to the top of the stretch before unleashing her bid. While four-wide, she closed ground reaching the front inside the sixteenth pole and then drew clear winning by 2¼ lengths.

On Dec. 28, the Rentz Training Center saw two more of their former pupils capture stakes at Parx. Making her 27th career start, Jakarta ran probably her best race ever leading wire-to-wire in the Mrs. Claus Stakes. Going off at odds of 18-1, Jakarta set the pace leading by 1½ lengths. In the stretch, she widened the lead to three lengths and coasted home. She upped her career earnings to $425,783. Later that afternoon, Dreams Untold was much the best in the Blitzen Stakes. Dreams Untold stalked the leader until they reached the quarter pole and then took command drawing away in the stretch winning by 3¾ lengths.

On Jan. 15, Goree Smith watched two Elloree Training Center graduates capture stakes in Florida. At Gulfstream Park, Shamrocket, fourth for much of the race, outdueled another in a determined stretch drive and reached the finish line first in the Sunshine Classic Stakes. He won by a half-length. On the other coast of Florida at Tampa Bay Downs, Nantucket Red broke like a rocket in the Wayward Lass Stakes and led wire-to-wire being 3 lengths ahead of the field at the finish line.

South Carolina Equine Committee Meets

On Wednesday, Jan. 5, the South Carolina Equine Study Committee met in Columbia. Members of the Committee are Chairman Russell Ott, Senator Dick Harpootlian, Senator Katrina Shealy, Representative Bill Hixon and SCTOBA members Kip Elser, Debby McCutchen and Jack Sadler.

The Committee heard testimony first from Lisa Zapollo, President of the South Carolina Horse Council. She emphasized how the Thoroughbred, Quarter Horse and other horse disciplines can bring in vast amounts of money into South Carolina. Due to competition from surrounding states, the number of horses in our state is dwindling.

Tom Lee then gave testimony. Tom is Vice President of the Tennessee Sports Wagering Advisory Council and Chairman of the Rule Making Committee. He outlined how Advanced Deposit Wagering operates in Tennessee and then fielded many questions from the Committee members. He was very articulate and informative helping the Committee understand how ADW can benefit our equine industry in South Carolina. Lee also encouraged the need for the formation of an equine commission.

Due to illness, Tom Aronson, President of Racing Resources Group, was unable to give testimony in person but he was able to submit a report. Aronson has been head of legislative affairs for the American Horse Council, senior Vice President of Television Games Network and was a pioneer creator of the modern Advanced Deposit Wagering business. Aronson believes South Carolina needs new tools to compete for investments in horse farms, horse breeding, training centers, veterinary activity and other horse based enterprises that are currently flowing out of South Carolina into surrounding states.

In his report, Aronson explains the benefits of ADW and how it can help raise funds and enhance the equine industry in our state. Money derived can enable South Carolina to provide owner and breeding bonuses.

SCTOBA Board member Marsha Hewitt noted the popularity and benefits of trail riding opportunities in our state parks. This activity has diminished due to lack of funds to maintain trails.

The next step is for the Committee to provide a report to the state legislature requesting the formation of an equine commission.

Shesmyheartandsoul Lands in Good Spot

Shesmyheartandsoul (Rockport Harbor—Wildheartsneverdie, by Gators and Bears) is a South Carolina-bred mare foaled in 2014. She was bred by Ron Madden in the name of his Jellicoe LLC in Aiken.

Shesmyheartandsoul went through the breaking process under the care of Marcus and Crystal Ryan. She was a member of their Mason Spring consignment at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale in 2016. She made 59 career starts campaigning in New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia. She recorded 15 wins, 4 seconds and 17 thirds racking up $213,854 in career earnings. This mare changed hands several times during her six years of racing. In May of 2021, Ron Madden regained ownership and retired her to his broodmare band. It is always great to see breeders follow the careers of horses they bred and be sure the horse ends up in a good, safe retirement environment.

Return of Events

We look forward to the return of the Aiken Trials on March 19, the Elloree Trials on March 19 and the Aiken Spring Steeplechase on March 26.

VIRGINIA

VTA announces 2021 breeders awards distributions

The Virginia Thoroughbred Association announced that a total of $975,000 in awards will be distributed to Virginia Breeders whose horses reached the winners circle in 2021 at any track in North America. The $975,000 figure is up $25,000 from 2020.

Adding in $75,000 in Virginia Stallion awards — up $25,000 from 2020 as well — a total of $1,050,000 in bonus monies will be distributed via the Breeders Fund. A total of 46 different breeders shared in the prize pool, which came from 161 winning Virginia-bred horses that compiled purse earnings of $2,916,905. The bonus averaged 32% of each winning purse.

The Virginia Breeders Fund is generated by one percent of every dollar wagered in Virginia on live racing, and from OTB and ADW betting. Each year, the Virginia Racing Commission approves how the money in the Fund is allocated. A large portion is set aside for payments to breeders of registered Virginia-breds that win races at any track in North America. There is a $25,000 cap on any single award.

Tasting the Stars wins the 2021 Nellie Mae Cox Stakes at Colonial (Coady Photography).

Morgan's Ford Farm, based in Front Royal, led the charge with $126,694 in bonus monies from 15 wins. Chess Chief, who scored a pair of stakes wins, and Bella Aurora, who connected in a single stake, were both key. The former, a 6-year-old Into Mischief horse, scored a maximum $25,000 award in winning the New Orleans Classic and a $19,027 bonus in the Tenacious Stakes at Fair Grounds. Their Bella Aurora won the Interborough Stakes, good for $17,441, while Supply and Demand, who won three in New York last year, produced over $32,000 in awards.

Passion Play captures the 2021 Bert Allen Stakes at Colonial (Coady Photography).

Boldor is best in the 2021 Punch Line Stakes at Colonial (Coady Photography).

Mr. & Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin III were next with $113,855 in awards, led by several key contributors — Passion Play, Virginia Beach and Attachment Rate. Passion Play's victories in the Bert Allen and Edward P. Evans Stakes each returned a $19,027 award as did Virginia Beach's win in the Camptown Stakes. Attachment Rate, a former Kentucky Derby participant, captured an $11,035 payday for winning a February 27 allowance at Gulfstream.

Knockgriffin Farm didn't have a five-digit award winner but they did have 14 overall. Multiple victors Vincent Van Gogo and Gimme Some Mo collected three apiece while Mucho Mas and Mo Clare's each had a pair. The combined $72,346 total was good for third in the standings. Gimme Some Mo's $9,944 award from a Churchill Downs claimer was tops and Shastee's maiden special weight $8,562 bonus score at Gulfstream was next best.

Audley Farm Equine's $69,353 bonus tally came from just five wins, but three were in $100,000 stakes. Determined Kingdom prevailed in the Jamestown, Tasting the Stars was best in the Nellie Mae Cox, and Urban Fairytale finished first in the Brookmeade. Each provided an extra $19,027 on top of purse money earned.

With Repo Rocks' three wins and American Dubai's two, Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin took fifth place with $69,166. She had seven triumphs in all but benefitted most from American Dubai's dominating 7-length allowance win at Oaklawn and its $106,000 purse. Repo Rock's hat trick of wins all took place in New York — a maiden special weight at Belmont followed by two winning allowance efforts at Aqueduct.

Carlos Moore and Gillian Gordon-Moore's bonus of $55,443 was good for sixth among breeders. All came from Steve Asmussen trained Boldor, who prevailed in three stakes last year — the Sam's Town at Delta, the King Cotton at Oaklawn and the Punch Line at Colonial.

Quest Realty's $49,799 came from six different horses, two of which reached the winners circle three times each — Drosselmoon and Stay Out. Another trio had their picture taken twice — Jestful, Point of Grace and Stay In.

The William Backer Revocable Trust reached the $40,000 level thanks to Shaaz's late season win in a $67,000 maiden special weight at Santa Anita. The Uncle Mo colt, a Bob Baffert trainee, was making his first lifetime start.

Tango Charlie's three wins in 2021 propelled Morgan's Ford Farm and Godolphin to $38,361 in bonus earnings. The 4-year-old Hard Spun gelding took a maiden claimer at Oaklawn and followed that with claiming wins at Ellis Park and Churchill. Oviatt Class chipped in with a maiden special weight victory at Del Mar, good for a $13,318 check.

Rounding out the top ten was Lazy Lane Farms with $37,659 from nine wins. Forloveofcountry was best on three different occasions while Dublin Yinz Money and Sing Along Suzy won twice each.

A total of $75,000 in stallion awards were distributed among six owners with 11 winners and combined purse earnings of $250,920. Horses sired by Smallwood Farms' Friend or Foe won three and took $39,248 of the stallion reward pool. Mr. Buff led the way again with two stakes scores in New York's Stymie and Jazil. The 8-year-old gelding has amassed $1.4 million from 17 lifetime wins.

Goodluckchuck, sired by Anne Louise Bonda's Big Picture, won three races to produce a $14,481 bonus payout. The 6-year-old gelding won an allowance at Charles Town, a claimer at Timonium and a starter optional claimer at Laurel.

Third largest award went to Lady Olivia at North Cliff, whose $8,967 bonus came courtesy of Heart Light's maiden special weight win at Colonial on August 2. The 3-year-old Cosa Vera filly was best by a nose.

Other awards were received by Leanne Hester (Gone Clubbing), Ruxton Farm (Fierce Wind) and the late Sara Collette (Xenodon).

Spring Point-to- Point Season Kicks Off March 5; NSA Sanctioned Meets to Follow

The Point-to-Point (PTP) season of weekly steeplechase events in March and April kicks off March 5 at the Hill in Boston, VA with the Rappahannock PTP. Jump action continues March 19 with the Warrenton Hunt at the Airlee Race Course, March 26 with the Piedmont Fox Hounds at the Salem Course in Upperville, April 9 with the Old Dominion Hounds at the Ben Venue Farm in Ben Venue, April 17 with the Blue Ridge Hunt at the Woodley Farm in Berryville, April 24 with the Loudoun Hunt at Morven Park in Leesburg, and May 1 with the Middleburg Hunt at Glenwood Park.

The NSA's spring slate of sanctioned jump meets is set and includes the Middleburg Spring Races April 23 at Glenwood Park, the Foxfield Spring Races April 30 in Charlottesville, and the Virginia Gold Cup Races — with wagering — May 7 at Great Meadow in The Plains. Kentucky Derby betting will be available at the Gold Cup as well.

Colonial Downs Meet Dates Set; Condition Book, Stakes Schedule Available Soon

More Days, More Money! That's the theme for 2022's thoroughbred racing season at Colonial Downs in New Kent which will expand to nine weeks in 2022 and offer a projected $600,000 in average purses per day. In all, there will be 27 race days with action scheduled every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at 1:30 PM from July 11 - September 7.

The stakes schedule will be available in early March followed by stall applications and a condition book later in the month. Details will be available at colonialdowns.com.

Which stallions will step up?

The Reign of the noblest of Kings, may be considered to be in the twilight of his rule, initiating speculation, as to who will assume the mantle of greatness and draw the sword from the stone.

The sustainable boom of prosperity, during the dominion of Fiber Sonde, will never be replicated in my lifetime, while the line of ascension appears lengthy and unpredictable.

To be the best, you have to dethrone the best.

This is a glance back at some 2021 West Virginia stakes races and how the aspiring aristocracy fared.

On Saturday, May 1, the $75,000 Confucius Say Stake gathered a worthy field of eight adversaries, with the winner being V. I. P. Ticket, a son of Windsor Castle.

The Taylor Mountain Farm stallion would be 24, and though having served with distinction in the breeding shed, including siring millionaire Down Town Allen, he would have to attain this distinction posthumously.

That same evening, Door Buster, a daughter of Speightster, convincingly won the Its Binn Too Long Stakes for breeders Catherine K Jennings and Scott Mallory.

The son of Grade III Champion sprinter Speightstown was euthanized after a paddock accident at his new home in Ontario, Canada.

May 8. The prize possession of the Ronney W. Brown barn, Golden Key, exhibited his customary fleet turn of foot and repulsed all challengers to capture the Coin Collector Stakes.

The chestnut son of Uncle Lino was bred by Francis Daniel III and Ronney Brown. Uncle Lino is a son of Uncle Mo and stands at Northview Stallion Station. Though in close proximity to the Mountain state, I foresee his opportunities being marginal.

May 29. Windsor Castle scored with his daughter Our Diamond Girl, in the Fancy Buckles Stakes for owner/breeders Tim and Judy Grams. The lanky filly embodies the traits inherent to his departed sire: consistency, versatility and resoluteness.

June 5. Featured the It's Only Money Stakes and the winning combination of trainer Crystal Pickett and breeder Francis Daniel III.

This time they gathered in the winner's circle alongside Hypothesis, a gelded son of Algorithms.

The son of Bernardini's new home, Uruguay, will make travel arrangements quite imposing.

September 18. Hosted the Henry Mercer Memorial and showcased a budding superstar in victorious, Run to Daylight. The son of Runhappy is bred by James Miller and made a shambles of the short field vying for the $45,510 first-place prize.

Runhappy, a three-time Grade 1 winner and Eclipse champion, stands at Claiborne Farm in Paris, Ky., for $12,500. We'll definitely see Run to Daylight on a frequent basis, I'm just not sure how many Runhappy offspring will grace our sandy oval.

The sixth race on the card tabbed Fancy Her Up, as divisional leader, with sheer blazing speed her weapon of choice. The daughter of Juba is owned, trained and bred by John Casey and handily raced her opposition into submission claiming the $75,000 Rachel's Turn Stakes.

Juba is a son of Tapit and serves as a viable alternative to one of the world's leading bloodlines. Juba stands at Taylor Mountain farm for a $1,500 fee.

The leader in the category of sprinting excellence was Dr. Feelgood, but with Hypothesis' success in the Last Enchantment Stakes, breeder Frances Daniel III is rapidly finding the next stable sensation for trainer Crystal Pickett.

The son of Algorithms is a stalking machine at 4½ furlongs, with a dynamic closing kick.

October 9. The West Virginia Breeders Classics are the pinnacle for statewide bragging rights, particularly breeders in the Thoroughbred industry.

Last year, the Triple Crown Nutrition went to The Sky is Falling, bred by Catherine K. Jennings and Scott Mallory. The compact daughter of Cupid was the beneficiary of a hotly-contested pace assuring her a hard-earned victory. Cupid is a Grade 1 winner by Tapit and stands at Ashford Stud in Kentucky.

The West Virginia Lottery Breeders Classic provided another triumphant opportunity for breeder James Miller. Social Chic, a son of Upstart found his inside post position to be advantageous helping secure a narrow win and initial stakes success.

Upstart stands at Airdrie Stud in Kentucky for a $10,000 fee.

The sixth race on the program welcomed an old friend, Penguin Power, back to the winner's circle.

The gifted son of Fiber Sonde bred by John D. McKee made every pole a winning one.

The hefty accolades bestowed upon the King of West Virginia stallions would fill a small library.

Fiber Sonde continues to stand at John and Cyndy McKee's Beau Ridge farm for the inconceivable low price of $1,000.

The Cavada is the most coveted West Virginia race at Charles Town for fillies and mares. Last year a brilliant filly by Creative Cause, the 4-year-old Star of Night, emphatically inscribed her name in the record books. Bred by Heinz J. Steinmann, the gray/roan filly boasts 11 wins and two seconds in 13 efforts.

Creative Cause is a son of Giant's Causeway and stands at Airdrie Stud in Midway, Ky.

It seems fitting that the West Virginia Breeders Classic was not only won by a son of Fiber Sonde, but in doing registered a perfect 6-for-6 seasonal tally to remain undefeatd in nine lifetime starts.

Muad'dib was bred in West Virginia by John McKee and like his full sister, the remarkable graded stakes winner Late Night Pow Wow, was spawn from humble beginnings before exceeding all expectations on the racetrack.

Fiber Sonde, a son of Unbridled's Song, entered stud in 2008 and though 17 years old is still a cherished commodity.

The Roger Ramey Breeders Classic Distaff showcased Stowe Angel, a daughter of Warrior's Reward. Her breathtaking performance was a testament to her connections and breeder, Newborne Farm.

Warrior's Reward is a son of Medaglia d'Oro and stands at Wyn Oaks Farm in Pennsylvania.

November 27. The West Virginia Futurity for juveniles, valued for it's added monies, observed Jungle Beast swoop the field and draw away in a ferocious performance. The handsome youngster is by Golden Years and was bred at O'Sullivan Farms.

Golden Years is a youthful son of Not For Love and stands for the modest fee of $1,500. Time is definitely on his side to further elevate regional popularity.

With a limited number of breeders in the state willing to part with young stock and only a handful of horsemen financial prepared to venture beyond it's borders, I see significant interest continuing for the following local sires: Fiber Sonde, Juba, Limehouse, Golden Years, Stormy's Majesty and Bullsbay.

January allowance wins by No Change (Fiber Sonde) and Youthinkthatsfunny (Fiber Sonde) remind us that the King is still capable of governing and worthy of his title.

Benefits of Owning a WV-Bred and/or -Sired racehorse
Some of the best incentives in the nation!

- A minimum of three accredited races are written every day at Charles Town exclusively for registered WV-bred and/or -sired horses.
- West Virginia has the only program in the country that permits horses to win state-bred races that do not count against the horse's lifetime open conditions.
- The WV Thoroughbred Development Fund distributes over $4.5 million to breeders, owners, and stallion owners of accredited WV-bred and/or -sired horses based the horse's annual earnings at Charles Town and Mountaineer Park racetracks.
- The West Virginia Breeders Classics pays out almost $1 million in purses for WV-bred and/or -sired horses. It is held annually on the second Saturday in October.
- $800,000 in purses are allocated for up to 16 WV accredited stakes races during the year.
- Supplemental Purse Awards of up to 10% of the winner's share of the purse to the owner, breeder, and/or sire owner of the accredited WV-bred and/or -sired winner.
- West Virginia offers year-round racing with approximately 300 race days per year.

TGSF takes the reins of Central Entry Office

'Protecting the date' chief among reasons for power shift

By Betsy Burke Parker

When conceived some 40 years ago, Central Entry Office was a service that was a natural for horsemen and race organizers, says creator Will O'Keefe.

O'Keefe says over the next year, he's going to step away from active management of the system and computer programs he created to take point-to-point entries, tabulate results and keep archival records of the history of the sport. Just as natural, he says, is passing the torch to the Temple Gwathmey Steeplechase Foundation.

This spring, TGSF will take over portions of CEO's role on the race circuit as part of a purchase agreement. The Gwathmey Foundation will handle Maryland and Pennsylvania point-to-point entries this season, with O'Keefe continuing to work the Virginia unsanctioned races and hunter paces.

The following year, if all goes well, the Gwathmey Foundation will handle all CEO duties.

Central Entry Office was "a long time coming," says O'Keefe, tracing how he created the database out of necessity. Before the early 1980s, Virginia point-to-points took their own entries, every meet, every week. A race secretary would painstakingly record owner, trainer and rider information, horse and silks details and verify weight allowances for race program printing.

©Douglas Lees

It was laborious and repetitive, O'Keefe recalls. There was no central database.

Until he made one.

O'Keefe, a self-described "computer dinosaur that needs help on almost everything," was a man ahead of his time when he made the central entry system. Soon, he started adding

INNOVATOR – CENTRAL ENTRY OFFICE

Central Entry Office had a backdoor beginning. Before 1983, every hunt club took their own entries, painstakingly recording details, silks, bloodlines – everything – every week. NSA (then NSHA) information wasn't searchable by computers since personal computers were still in the future. The only way to verify past performance was by combing old annuals, and there was no record of point-to-point form at all except some in the weekly Chronicle of the Horse and Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred magazines.

Finally, "the secretary for Fairfax, Mario DeFrank, got so frustrated with every hunt having to take all this information, every week, he said we should get one person to keep all of it on file. I guess that 'one person' was me," O'Keefe explains.

It was straightforward, if labor intensive, at first, to streamline the process. O'Keefe used Chronicle archives to develop verifiable records back as far as 1970, but he made it so that the swelling data-base auto-updates. It is an easy-to-use platform for horsemen to find overnights and real-time details. The side benefit – checking and con-firming unsanctioned race form, mirrors the well-regarded Irish p2p site.

history and archival information to what became centralentryoffice.com.

To create the historic record of unsanctioned steeplechasing in America – one that incorporates National Steeplechase Association records, too, once a week, O'Keefe would travel 20 miles north of his family's Pine Brook Farm in Bealeton, Virginia to the Middleburg offices of the Chronicle of the Horse. The Chronicle keeps bound volumes of their weekly magazines, which until recently included race reports - or at least results, from every sanctioned and unsanctioned steeplechase in the U.S. The magazine reported on every jump meet in America until the last few years.

"I basically spent a lifetime loading information, so far, all the way back to the '70s," O'Keefe says. "(Wife) Kathleen'll tell you – this is clearly my passion.

"But, last couple years, I started realizing I'm not going to do it forever because I won't be here forever."

So when Charlie Fenwick, Jr., former TGSF president, suggested Central Entry might be a good fit for the Temple Gwathmey Steeplechase Foundation and its mission, O'Keefe recognized a natural match.

The foundation, O'Keefe says, has funding and experienced staff capable of learning the race week entry process and archival data entry. In addition, new software can be applied to make the processes more seamless, he figures.

It was a way to protect the precious information plus carry it into the future, O'Keefe says.

"TGSF wanted to partner with Central Entry Office as the best way to preserve the amazing history that Will has recorded," said the Gwathmey Foundation's executive director Alissa Norman. "Nowhere else is there a database that covers sanctioned and unsanctioned racing, all the way back to 1970. Part of TGSF's mission is to preserve the history of the sport, so Central Entry fits right into the mission."

Over the years, O'Keefe says he's noticed trends in the industry, even as everything else seems to be shifting to digital input. "Most of the hunter pace people are fine to enter online," he explains, "but steeplechase horsemen, most of them much prefer to call in their entries. I think a lot of them like to talk just as much as make their entries.

"One I remember – and I sure miss him, (the late) Paddy Neilson would always call Monday morning around 7 a.m. He knew other people wouldn't be calling 'til 8, or after, and he knew we could talk for a while."

O'Keefe says he's downsizing in other ways as well. He and wife Kathleen have sold Pine Brook and purchased a historic house to renovate in nearby Remington. They'll board a horse or two in nearby Warrenton but plan to enjoy a new normal of living in town without a farm to care for.

As for any anticipated "changes" in the CEO entry process or accessing archival information this season, O'Keefe says horsemen need not worry. CEO's website will continue to exist and auto-update. Overnights will be posted Mondays and scratches and changes reported Wednesdays. Most results are available a few hours after the last race on a point-to-point card.

Norman says, eventually, she'd like to take more entries online. "This will streamline the process and reduce errors" she says, though she acknowledges that O'Keefe's personal touch was as much part of CEO's mission and success as anything else.

"Trying to take over for Will... it keeps me up at night, to be honest," she says. "I'm so grateful for his willingness to pass on his knowledge, but I totally realize there's no way he could teach me everything. When he's lived and breathed both the sport and the Central Entry Office for so many years, there's just no way to teach that."

Sweet August Moon

BARRIE B. REIGHTLER

Anne "Mimi" Thorington, breeder of graded stakes winner Sweet August Moon, doted on her mares.

In these columns I've written a lot about horses that were a huge success for us at the sales but floundered in their subsequent lives at the racetrack. I worry that I am leaving the impression that I think we were smarter than anyone else in the game. To be a successful pinhooker one does have to believe that he or she can see something in a weanling that, on the sale day, no one else in the pavilion imagines. Selling one that goes on to succeed, while the ultimate goal, is the exception to the rule. The truth is that horse racing is, perhaps, the world's biggest crapshoot.

I take that back. In fact, success at making stallions is even harder.

For many years Dixie and I foaled mares and sold yearlings for Anne F. Thorington's Maple Leaf Farm in Unionville, Pa. Mimi, as she was known to all, was a very demanding horsewoman who had ridden all of her life and, in her later years, took up driving with great success. She had strong opinions about her horses and was not easily dissuaded when she had formed those opinions. There were certain stallions that she loved and among them were Maria's Mon and, later, Malibu Moon. She would breed to those favorites every year.

In 2004 Mimi bred her mare Silent Academy (1999, Royal Academy—Silent Turn, by Silent Cal) to Malibu Moon. It was Malibu Moon's first season in Kentucky after he began his breeding career at Country Life Farm in Maryland. Mimi liked big horses and the resulting filly made her as pleased as a mother of the bride. The bay filly was tall and leggy when born at Charlton. When she returned from Kentucky, after her mother was bred to More Than Ready, she was all legs. Mrs. Thorington loved her and, as she grew taller and taller, she loved her even more.

At some point, in the early summer of 2005, I started to worry that she was getting too big and that her size would be a detriment to her when we got to the Keeneland September sale. As I had feared, when she arrived at the sale for Book Three the universal reaction was, "She's a very nice, correct filly but she'll never make a 2-year-old. She's just too big." I could tell by all of the return visits that buyers were trying and failing to convince themselves that she wasn't too big.

Our tallest show person led her up to the ring and she had a $49,000 reserve. She sold for $50,000, a decent but unspectacular return on a $10,000 stud fee. To my surprise, the buyers were Tony Bowling and Bobby Dodd, accomplished Florida 2-year-old pinhookers. It appeared that they were the only ones who saw her potential in the ring that day.

Unsurprisingly, the filly showed up in the catalogue for the Ocala Breeders Sales Company's March 2-year-old sale. Not only did she show up, she blew the doors off the pavilion, selling to California trainer Brian Koriner for $400,000. Obviously, a few more people saw the cat in the picture in Ocala.

As you can imagine, Mrs. Thorington was gobsmacked. She couldn't decide how to feel. She was proud of her filly and the recognition her breeding had garnered but, "Damn that was a lot of money!" Luckily for Dixie and me, the mare had a crackerjack yearling by More Than Ready that would help assuage Mimi's sting. Her 2006 colt sold for $190,000 to Sagamore Farm at the 2007 Keeneland September sale.

While at Keeneland with the More Than Ready colt, the entries came out for the Del Mar Debutante Stakes. This was the first important 2-year-old filly race in California. There among the entries was the, as yet unraced, Sweet August Moon, the Malibu Moon filly from the previous year. Believe me when I tell you that I worked that tidbit into every conversation I had at the sales barn. The filly ran greenly and was never a factor but by then the colt was on his way to Sagamore.

As everyone had predicted, Sweet August Moon did not make a 2-year-old. She broke her maiden at 2, won an "a other than" at 3 from a total of seven starts. She caught up to her potential and came alive, winning the listed Honest Lady Stakes and the Grade 3 Las Flores at age 4 and following that, at age 5, with wins in the Grade 2 A Gleam Handicap at Hollywood Park and the Grade 3 Rancho Bernardo at Del Mar. At 6, she ran third in the Grade 1 Santa Monica. She finished her career winning seven of her 21 starts and earning $492,396.

Retired after her Grade 1 placing in the Santa Monica, Sweet August Moon produced her first foal, Sir Samson (Smart Strike) in 2012. Sir Samson made 25 starts with two wins and nine in-the-money finishes. He ran third in the Grade 2 San Vicente and earned $129,165. Her next few foals failed to impress, but waiting in the wings is Cars and Cigars, a 2019 colt by Bodemeister, and Reckless Courage, a 2-year-old filly by Gun Runner.

Selling a good horse that turns out to be a very good horse is always rewarding even if you weren't the one that got "all the money." Sweet August Moon was a horse who did well (better for some than others) for everyone who touched her and you can't ask for a horse to do any more. ✹

Randy Funkhouser

O'Sullivan Farms in the northern Shenandoah Valley was the only home Raymond Joseph "Randy" Funkhouser II knew his 70 years. His love for the land, the horses it produced, and Thoroughbred racing made him one of the most influential people in West Virginia. He passed away suddenly Feb. 4.

Funkhouser was born and raised in Charles Town, on West Virginia's oldest Thoroughbred farm, founded in 1939 by his grandfather R.J. Funkhouser.

The son of Justin and Ruth Funkhouser attended Powhatan School in Boyce, Va., and The Hill School in Pottstown, Pa., and graduated from Stanford University with a B.A. in creative writing before returning to Jefferson County in the mid-1970s to partner with his mother and mentor Frank Gall in running O'Sullivan Farms.

Funkhouser worked tirelessly for decades with legislators and community leaders to protect and enhance the Thoroughbred industry. He was a member of the Charles Town Horsemen's Benevolent Protective Association for 25 years, including stints as president for 16 of those years. He served on the boards of the National HBPA, West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association, West Virginia Breeders Classics, the Museum of the Shenandoah Valley, and was a founding member and organizer of the Charles Town Racetrack Chaplaincy.

"Randy devoted his life to advocacy for horsemen," said his wife of 46 years, Clissy. "He was fearless."

The Funkhouser family has been breeding and raising quality horses since the 1940s. Randy Funkhouser continued the operation which grew exponentially after the 1990s. In the 1980s, the farm's stallion Feel the Power, boasting champion bloodlines (Raise a Native out of Hall of Famer Davona Dale), would prove to be a solid sire and had a greater impact as a broodmare sire. In 2001, Funkhouser purchased another royally bred stallion, Eastover Court (Seattle Slew out of champion Heavenly Cause). At the time, the O'Sullivan barn housed a just-turned 3-year-old son of Eastover Court named Confucius Say (out of a Feel the Power mare). During the next five years Confucius Say would win 11 stakes including three runnings of the West Virginia Breeders Classic. When he retired at 11 he was the third-richest West Virginia-bred in history with earnings of $1,037,555.

Eastover Court, who only stood three years at O'Sullivan before his death at 13, would also sire Julie B (also out of a Feel the Power mare). A two-time winner of the West Virginia Jefferson Security Bank Cavada Breeders Classic Stakes, Julie B won 15 times in 33 starts and earned $890,030.

Funkhouser oversaw the building of a new stallion complex in the early 2000s and over the past 20 years the farm has stood the likes of Horse of the Year Black Tie Affair (Ire), champion sprinter and Hall of Famer Housebuster and Breeders' Cup Turf-G1 winner and top sire Prized. The roster continued to expand—eight stallions stand at the farm, including Limehouse and homebred Golden Years, who sold for six figures as a yearling and returned to the farm to stand at stud.

The farm's most recent stakes winner was Jungle Beast, a son of Golden Years, in November's West Virginia Futurity.

His family noted in a remembrance that their patriarch "had a voracious appetite for life, learning and travel. He had an unbridled hope that each year's foal crop would be the best yet. He was a visionary, a scholar and above all a man of honor. He had a big heart and laughed and wept equally with abandon. His beaming smile always lit up the room."

Funkhouser was an avid photographer in earlier years, and went on to pursue his love of creative writing. He recently published a book of poetry, Shenandoah Valley Sketches, and created a website that included audio recordings.

He had a passion for Jefferson County's culture, history and agriculture, and was a farmland preservation advocate. His family described him as possessing "an encyclopedic knowledge of family lore, fine wine, Thoroughbred pedigrees and every book he ever read. He was kind-hearted, generous and endlessly appreciative of God's creation. He loved the Lord, his family, his farm, his friends, and a good story. And boy, could he tell a tale."

Funkhouser is survived by his wife, Clissy, sons John and Joe Funkhouser, daughter Kate Brown, son-in-law Mike Brown, grandson Clyde Brown and sister Ann Strite-Kurz.

John and Joe carry on their father's legacy in the operation of the farm and advocacy for horsemen in West Virginia.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be sent to Charles Town Racetrack Chaplaincy, Friends of Happy Retreat in Charles Town, or The Bridge Community Church in Ranson, W.Va.

LANGHORNE BOND

Former chairman of the International Gold Cup Races in Virginia Langhorne McCook Bond, who led the Federal Aviation Administration during the Carter administration and prepared the agency with a detailed plan to manage the air traffic controllers' strike shortly after Ronald Reagan took office, died in January. He was 84.

Bond pursued safety issues in transportation including back-up systems for GPS software and transferred that interest and knowledge to horse sports. After his daughter Prescott was injured in a fall, Bond joined forces with Pony Clubs of America to establish an ASTM 1163 certification for riding helmets. Bond gave away dozens of helmets to steeplechase jockeys, who eventually adopted them and worked to get safer breakaway rails for fences and protective vests for riders.

Bond was born in China, the elder of two sons of William Langhorne Bond and Katherine Dunlop, and attended the University of Virginia, receiving a degree in philosophy in 1959 and a law degree in 1963. He served in the Virginia National Guard from 1959-65. Bond began his career as the special assistant to Alan Boyd, undersecretary of commerce for transportation and later became assistant administrator of the urban Mass Transportation Administration before becoming the executive director of the National Transportation Center.

He was the secretary of transportation for Illinois from 1973-77 and moved to Washington, D.C., when President Jimmy Carter appointed him administrator of the FAA, where he served from 1977-81. Bond later worked for Santarelli, Smith and Carroccio in Washington until his retirement in 1994. He served on numerous committees and boards, and in 1995 began devoting time to pro-bono activities, including an effort to establish a community park in Northern Fauquier County.

Bond is survived by his wife, Enriqueta Carter Bond; a brother, Thomas Dunlop Bond of Orange, Va.; a daughter Prescott Bond, and a son, Langhorne Carter Bond and his partner Lori Smiley of Marshall, Va.

MEARL "LONNIE" SOWERS

Former Charles Town racing secretary Mearl "Lonnie" Sowers died in January. He was 82. Sowers got his start in the racing industry rubbing horses for J.P. Simpson in the late 1950s before taking time away from the backstretch to begin a career in the racing offices of the West Virginia and Maryland circuits.

He would then once again find himself back at the barn in 1974 when he became an assistant trainer for Bud Delp. Most notably, Sowers called his boss to tell him he had seen something different after watching a dark gray colt work for the first time in 1978. The colt turned out to be 1979 Kentucky Derby-G1 and Preakness Stakes-G1 winner Spectacular Bid, who would go on to win 26 of 30 lifetime starts in his Hall of Fame career.

After leaving the backstretch, Sowers reprised his role in the Charles Town racing office, working his way up to the position of racing secretary in 1995. He later worked as an assistant mutuel manager until retiring in 2007.

Sowers is survived by his wife of 61 years, Margaret "Peggy" Lynn Horsley Sowers; two children, including Charles Town's current racing manager Duane Sowers, eight grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

KENNARD WARFIELD JR.

Thoroughbred owner and breeder Kennard "Ken" Warfield Jr., 81, passed away Jan. 25. Warfield had a long relationship with the Boniface family's Bonita Farm in Maryland, breeding and racing solo and in partnership. His sister Joan is married to trainer Bill Boniface.

Warfield co-bred steeplechase stakes winner Toughkenamon among others.

Born and raised in Glenelg, Md., Warfield was a farmer, entrepreneur and land developer. Survivors include his wife, Mary Ellen (Hartigan) Warfield, son Kennard Warfield III, son John Stuart Warfield, daughter Jacqueline Mary Ellen Warfield, sisters Joy Bird, Joan Boniface, Trudy Patrick and Patsy Wolsh, a grandson and many nieces and nephews.

DONALD WHITE

Pennsylvania Thoroughbred trainer Donald White of Levittown, Pa., passed away Jan. 17 at age 76 after a years-long battle with cancer.

White served in the U.S. Army's Special Forces in Vietnam and was a trainer at Parx Racing for more than 40 years. He won with his first starter in 1982 and won a career-best 37 races in 1987. His runners won 371 races and earned more than $7.8 million according to Equibase statistics. Top horses included six-time winner Hot Smile and December winner Sweet Turn. The latter, owned by White's wife Jane, has earned $237,752 and won six times. Malibu Anthem provided the trainer's final win Jan. 12 at Parx.

In addition to his wife, survivors include children Michael Rosenbaum and Stephanie White, sisters Dorothy Hansley and Linda Gurganus and a grandson. A memorial race celebration in his honor at Parx is being planned for the spring.

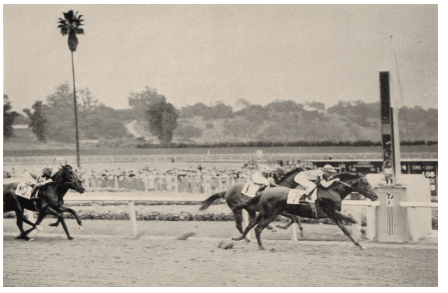
■ Mrs. H.M. Warner's King Rhymer, a 2-year-old from the first crop of Mrs. S.M. Pistorio's Maryland-based The Rhymer, set a world record of 32 seconds for three furlongs at Santa Anita in February, as he clipped three-fifths of a second off the old record.

■ The Board of Directors of the Thoroughbred Racing Associations of the United States unanimously approved the lip tattooing brand method of identifying horses, requiring in 1948 that each Thoroughbred be tattooed before it would be permitted to race on a TRA track.



King Rhymer set a world record for 3 furlongs at Santa Anita in 1947.

Developed by the U.S. Army and advanced by Spencer J. Drayton's Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau, the lip tattoo was developed as the final answer in protecting racing against horse substitution or "ringer" cases.

■ The Maryland Jockey Club purchased controlling interest in Laurel racetrack. At the time of the sale, former president of Pimlico Henry A. Parr, stated that Pimlico's officials felt that Laurel was a good investment and that there was no intention of eliminating Pimlico from the group of four major courses in the state.

The purchase of Laurel was speculated to be an "insurance" policy in the event that Pimlico would be unable to complete a deal for the property it leased in Baltimore, as the lease was set to expire in 1949. In that case, the Maryland Jockey Club could shift its meetings to Laurel while a new site for Pimlico was sought or while building was in progress.

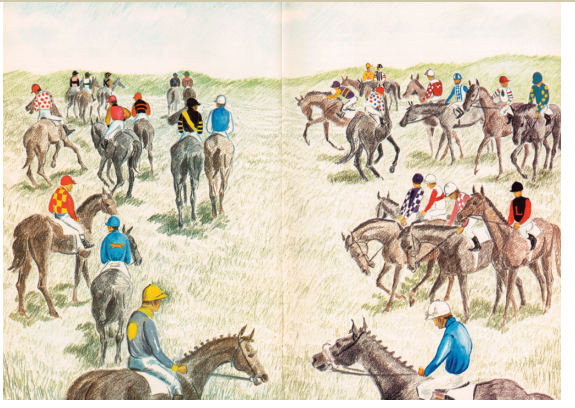
■ Mister Diz entered his 6-year-old season with an impressive track record to follow: best Maryland 2-year old in 1968, best 3-year-old the following season, best 4-year-old and up and best turf horse in 1970 and the best turf horse for a second time in 1971. Nathan Cohen's bay son of Panacean had won eight stakes and 11 other races in 66 starts, with earnings in excess of $272,000.

"I had another 2-year-old that I was pretty high on. Funny thing, I can't even remember that colt's name now. Anyway, I wanted this good colt to work three-quarters of a mile, and I needed something to go with him. So Mister Diz was the one I settled on just because it was time for him to get an extended work, too. Well, Mister Diz ran away from the other colt. He went in 1:11," recalled trainer Doug Small. "After that move, I knew I had to re-evaluate my 2-year-olds."



Maryland's prominent racing colors were illustrated in the March 1972 issue. For the key, visit bit.ly/3oKdEcW and go to page 56.

Trainer Doug Small accompanies Mister Diz and exercise rider Ellie Guy to the track.

Mister Diz retired in 1975, after 90 starts over eight seasons, with 23 wins, 17 seconds and 14 thirds, highlighted by a third in the 1974 Dixie Handicap-G2. He earned $327,015.

■ Humphrey S. Finney, founder of The Maryland Horse and the Maryland Horse Breeders Association's first employee, delivered a speech to the Horse Health Seminar in Pomona, Cal., titled, "How to Buy a Horse." As chairman of the Fasig-Tipton Company's board of directors, with more than 40 years of experience at the sales, he had a lot to say:

"I find we are breeding a much higher percentage of unsound animals than we ever used to.

"The main things you need to look for in a horse of any breed are good conformation, constitution and disposition, as well as family and pedigree. All of these factors are now emphasized by a lot of sellers, but nowhere near enough by most breeders.

"And remember, buying a horse is just like buying a marriage license. The purchase price has no bearing whatever on the ultimate cost of the operation. Be sure before you go to buy a horse that you are able to properly take care of him and give him all that is due in the way of correct management."

■ Herbert Allen's Explodent, a Maryland-bred son of the Maryland stallion Nearctic, won Aqueduct's $25,000-added Swift Stakes. The colt, bred by Allaire duPont, outran Cool Concept as the 5-2 favorite in the 6-furlong race.

Retiring a multiple stakes winner in 1973, Explodent became a highly successful sire, among his 63 stakes winners, five won Grade 1s including Mi Selecto, Exchange and Exbourne.

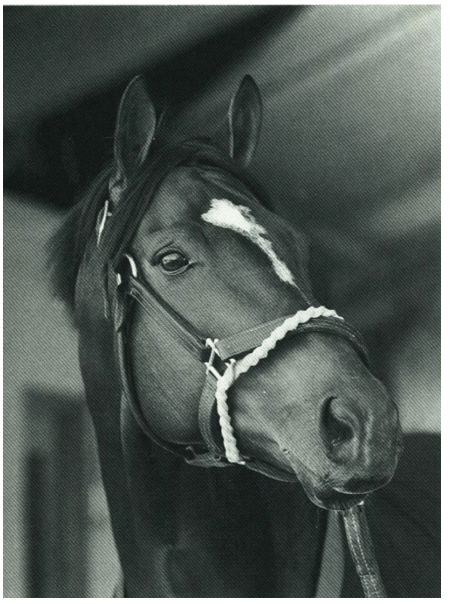
■ Fewer than 50 Thoroughbred owners earned more than a million dollars in a single year, but the Mid-Atlantic region was home to six who did in 1996. Carolyn Hine, owner of champion Skip Away, had stable earnings of $2,822,396. New Farm, owned by Hine's fellow New Jersey resident Everett Novak, and Pennsylvania breeder/owner George Strawbridge's Augustin Stable also broke the $2 million mark. Other top earners in the region included Marylander Robert E. Meyerhoff ($1,425,062) and Virginians Edward P. Evans ($1,146,995) and David P. Reynolds ($1,056,284).

■ The accolades rolled in for Maryland-bred Cigar, who received the Eclipse Award as the nation's Horse of the Year for the second year in a row. The son of Palace Music also topped the international classifications for the second consecutive season, his 135-pound weight assignment placing him one pound higher than top-ranked 3-year-old Helissio (Fr) and three pounds above his own high mark of 1995, and was highweighted on the Canadian Free Handicap. In honor of Cigar's achievements, Aqueduct's Grade 1 NYRA Mile–Cigar's first stakes win that helped launch his record-equaling streak of 16 wins in a row–was renamed the Cigar Mile. A life-sized statue was also placed on display in the Garden of Champions at Gulfstream Park.



LYDIA A. WILLIAMS

Maryland-bred Cigar won his second consecutive Horse of the Year crown in 1996.

■ The West Virginia Breeders Classics had a new, expanded format for the 11th renewal, with Breeders Classics events set to be held at Charles Town and Mountaineer as the number of races increased from six to nine and purses totaled a record $500,000. The Frank Gall Memorial, a long mainstay on the Charles Town schedule, became a Breeders Classic event as a preparation for the traditional Breeders Classics Day card.

■ Korea underwent a total restructuring of its Thoroughbred racing program and welcomed a planeload of 87 Thoroughbreds, from Baltimore-Washington International airport, in late March. The government-owned Korean racing association was being privatized, with plans for three more racetracks put into motion with the issuance of permits. Purchasing was being handled by S & K Trading and Consulting of Ellicott City, Md., with the Maryland Department of Agriculture working to facilitate the process.

"They'll be competing against each other, so the idea is for them to be roughly equivalent in ability. You wouldn't want one horse winning everything. Improving the breed will come gradually," said Marilyn Bassford of the MDA.

■ After she was sent to New Bolton Center with a life-threatening infection in mid-February, multiple stakes-winning Maryland-bred Miss Slewpy was retired from racing, though she was expected to recover in time for breeding that spring. The 6-year-old daughter of Slewpy raced for her breeder C. Oliver Goldsmith until she was sold to John Kluge's Morven Stud just before her illness. In 26 starts she recorded 14 wins (eight stakes) and eight placings (five stakes), and $535,863 in earnings. Her last start was in the Maryland Racing Writers' Association Handicap at Laurel, where she triumphed by a half-length.

Sadly Miss Slewpy, a granddaughter of Goldsmith's foundation mare Turn Capp, succumbed to the infection and subsequent laminitis two months later.

■ The Mid-Atlantic was well-represented on the final tallies for the 2011 championships, with multiple horses and humans represented in the results. Notably, Havre de Grace, who spent much of the season at Delaware Park with trainer Larry Jones, was named Horse of the Year and champion older female. In her career, Havre de Grace earned $2,586,175 with multiple Grade 1 wins and placings, including a win in the Woodward Stakes at Saratoga.

After one start in 2012, a win in the New Orleans Ladies Stakes, Havre de Grace was retired and sold for $10 million to Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm at the Keeneland November sale. The dam of four foals to race, she has four winners, including 6-year-old Graceful Princess (Tapit), who won the Molly Pitcher Stakes-G3 last year. Her youngest is a yearling colt by Justify.

TOD MARKS

Based at Delaware Park for much of the year, Havre de Grace was the 2011 Horse of the Year.

■ Ben's Cat was named 2011 Maryland-bred Horse of the Year, champion older male, turf runner and sprinter. For a horse who broke his pelvis at 2 and didn't race until he was 4, for a $20,000 claiming price, the gelding clearly didn't know the odds were against him.

Out of 63 starts in his career, the son of Parker's Storm Cat won 32 before he was retired in 2017. Bred, owned and trained by Maryland legend King T. Leatherbury, Ben's Cat joined the ranks with Heros Reward (2007-08) and Les Arcs (2006) as the only Maryland-breds to be awarded as many divisional titles in one year.

LYDIA A. WILLIAMS

Ben's Cat won the 2011 Maryland Million Turf Sprint, his fifth stakes victory for that year, earning him Maryland-bred Horse of the Year honors.

Mid-Atlantic 2021 Statistical Review

— The Numbers Game —

There are two main camps when it comes to statistics. One believes they are valuable tools when trying to compare or evaluate performances. The other embraces the phrase "Lies, damned lies and statistics" that means numbers bolster weak arguments or prove points that may not be totally accurate in the big picture.

Regardless of where you sit, statistics in the sports world are vital. In Thoroughbred breeding, not only can they be used to quantify quality or show trends, they can be quite enlightening.

For more than 30 years, Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred has provided a bounty of statistics for readers to pour over. Each year, this edition includes an alphabetical listing of state-bred stakes winners, breeding statistics from The Jockey Club on the number of mares bred by local stallions, the number of stakes horses by local stallions, and more.

Want to see a list of Maryland-bred millionaires? Turn to page 98. Or find New Jersey breeders of stakes winners for the year? See page 110. How many mares were bred to Pennsylvania stallions the past 15 years? Go to page 128. Who was the leading earner among West Virginia-breds last season? Page 145. How many Virginia-bred stakes winners per year since 2007? Kindly turn to page 138.

Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred uses a variety of sources to compile this trove. Each state's breeders' association provides background on its organization and its programs, and when available, statistics on the individual state fund program.

The Jockey Club annually supplies breeding statistics for each state. Found in the shaded boxes throughout the state's statistical section are charts showing numbers of mares bred, foals born in the state, total earnings by state-bred runners, along with a running history of those numbers.

The Jockey Club has similar information available in its State Fact Books section on its website. But Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred provides numbers going back for more than a decade. The Jockey Club also provides an annual Report of Mares Bred/Live Foal Report for all stallions in its database on a state-by-state basis.

Mid-Atlantic-bred stakes horses are highlighted, and stakes winners have brief bios, which include a pedigree line, the breeder, plus the owner and trainer at the time the runner last won a stakes, in addition to a listing of all the stakes performances for the year.

Leading state-bred runners for the year—by earnings and wins—are found within these pages, as is an alphabetical listing of the breeders of state-bred stakes winners.

Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred utilizes The Jockey Club Information System's database for state-bred runners lists and stallion progeny figures. TJCIS includes all statistic information from the Northern and Southern Hemispheres, the most comprehensive numbers available. Thus TJCIS's lists of leading earners produced for each state takes into account horses who never started in the U.S. or Europe.

And stallions with runners in Southern Hemisphere countries have those figures added to year-end totals (including newly-turned 2-year-olds in South America, Australia and New Zealand who are just launching their careers in November and December).

Statistics in these pages can be used as the reader sees fit. Follow breeding trends, recap a runner's season, find out how much a state breeders' fund paid out, get the track record for a stallion.

If Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred helps you settle an argument with a statistical non-believer, you're welcome. With the rise of the electronic age, more information can be found on the internet. But these pages give a comprehensive overview of the previous season, in one spot. Pick it up, turn to a page, explore, get lost in the numbers.

If nothing else, realize that the annual statistical section proves one thing—there is a rich and bountiful industry in this region that should never be overlooked.

And now you've got the numbers to prove it.

Delaware Certified Thoroughbred Program

The Delaware Certified Thoroughbred Program (DCTP)

1) Proactively supports the economic development intent of the Horse Racing Redevelopment Act of 1994.

2) Provides a purse enhancement incentive for horsemen at Delaware Park who certify or own Delaware Certified Thoroughbred horses.

3) Increases the number of horses in each race.

4) Contributes to the long-term economic prosperity of Delaware agriculture and encourages preservation of Delaware farm land.

Stakes program

In 2022 a record number of TEN Delaware Certified restricted stakes will be offered throughout the meet (see schedule at right).

Funding and administering the program

The DTHA has approved a contribution of up to $750,000 per year for the DCTP from the horsemen's purse account. Another $500,000 has been allocated from the state of Delaware and $250,000 is contributed by Delaware Park to match DTHA's contribution.

The fund is administered by the DTHA. Bonuses are paid directly to the owner via their horsemen's bookkeeper account and certifiers bonuses are paid monthly.

For more information about the DCTP, visit www.dtha.com. Click on the DCTP link to download an application or to find a list of participating Delaware farms. From the website you can also check to see if a horse of racing age is Delaware Certified.

The DCTP is also on Facebook and Twitter. Like us at Friends of Delaware Horse Racing and follow us at twitter @dtha_bessie or @moscarellidctp. ◆

Certified Program

50% Purse Bonuses continue for 2022 Race Meet for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place finishers at Delaware Park (25% bonus to Owner and 25% to Certifier)

- Delaware Certified horses may enter in all maiden claiming events of $25,000 and up for the Waiver Claim
- For 2022 TEN Delaware Certified restricted stakes will be offered with free nominations
- DTHA Governors' Day and George Rosenberger Memorial Stakes have been granted a purse supplement of $50,000 for Delaware Certified eligible horses that run first through fifth (purse total will be $150,000 for DCTP horses)
- Any DCTP horse that finishes first through third in an Open Stakes at Delaware Park can earn bonuses up to $10,000.

Delaware Certified Thoroughbred Program celebrates participants in September

The 29th annual Owners' Day at Delaware Park on Sept. 25, 2021, was a celebration that included the theme: "We're off to the Races" (a play on "Off to see the Wizard" from the The Wizard of Oz). Costumes, rainbows and stakes filled the day, along with presentations of 2020 awards.

Trainer Brittany Russell sent out two DCTP stakes winners on the card. First out was Cash is King LLC and LC Racing LLC's Murph in the Small Wonder for 2-year-old fillies. A Maryland-bred daughter of Malibu Moon bred by CandyLand Farm, where she was certified, the filly cruised home a 4½-length winner over six others, getting the 5½ furlongs in 1:03.72.

The 6-furlong Tax Free Shopping Distaff for fillies and mares went to 2020 leading certified horse Street Lute, who rallied in the stretch to win by three-quarters of a length in a smashing 1:09.45. The 3-year-old Maryland-bred filly by Street Magician, owned by Lucky 7 Stables and trained by John Robb, won the previous year's Small Wonder and remained a perfect 3-for-3 at Delaware Park.

The First State Dash Stakes for 2-year-olds at 5½ furlongs drew a large field of 10, and the two favorites took the top two spots, with 2-1 second-choice No Sabe Nada getting the half-length victory over frontrunning 3-2 favorite Rebel Empire. The Kentucky-bred owned by R Racing Stable and trained by D. Scott Peck was making his third start of the year, all at Delaware Park – in four starts at the track in 2021 he won twice, including his debut, was second in the Dover Stakes and third in the Rocky Run.

In the final DCTP stakes on the card, Russell sent out Madaket Stables LLC, Ten Strike Racing, Michael E. Kisber & BTR Racing Inc.'s DCTP veteran Whereshetoldmetogo, who battled home for a neck victory in the New Castle Stakes for older runners, redeeming himself after being disqualified in the same race the year before. The talented 6-year-old son of El Padrino, bred in Maryland, zipped the 6 furlongs in 1:09.09.

Awards presented for 2020

The Delaware Certified program also presented their annual awards throughout the day. A trophy was awarded to the certifier of the horse with the highest Delaware Certified earnings at Delaware Park for the 2020 race meet. Here are the results of the individual categories:

Leading certified horse and leading 2-year-old filly: STREET LUTE, certified by Dr. and Mrs. R. Thomas Bowman and Dr. Brooke Bowman at Aimee Hall@ Sharp Farm, Middletown.

Street Lute, owned by Lucky 7 Stables and trained by John Robb, made two starts in 2020 at Delaware Park and won both. She broke her maiden in a maiden special weight and followed with a win in the Delaware Certified restricted Small Wonder Stakes.

Leading 2-year-old colt or gelding: SINGLINO, certified by John E. Worsley at Marydel Hunt, Middletown.

Leading 3-year-old colt or gelding: GOLDEN CANDY, certified by Armand Delaperrier Stables LLC at Cedar Lane Farm, Smyrna.

Leading 3-year-old filly: DANCER'S MELODY, certified by Timothy F. Ritchey Racing Stables Inc. at Cut N Run Farm, Camden.

Leading 4-year-old and up, colt or gelding: THREES OVER DEUCES, certified by Pocket 3's Racing LLC at Marlyn Meadow, Middletown.

Leading 4-year-old and up, filly or mare: MARY ALICE, certified by Margaret Hawk at Cedar Lane Farm, Smyrna.

Leading Certifier

TIMOTHY F. RITCHEY RACING STABLES INC.: Started three different horses 11 times, with five wins, two seconds and four thirds, for a total of $38,372.50 in DCTP bonuses.

Multiple stakes winners

Caravel (certified by Elizabeth Merryman at La Rain Farm, Middletown) – $75,000 Lady Erie and $80,000 Malvern Rose (Presque Isle).

Theme-based Owners' Day celebration in September at Delaware Park.

Lt. Governor Bethany Hall Long (left) made the presentation for 2020 top certified horse and 2-year-old filly Street Lute to her breeders and certifiers, Dr. Thomas Bowman, Chris Bowman and Dr. Brooke Bowman.

Kenny Had a Notion (certified by Louis Ulman and H. Neil Glasser at Marlyn Meadow, Middletown) – $80,000 Jamestown and $100,000 Maryland Million Nursery (Laurel Park).

Social Paranoia (certified by The Elkstone Group at CandyLand Farm, Middletown) – Grade 3 $100,000 Appleton (Gulfstream Park), Grade 3 $150,000 Poker (Belmont Park).

Street Lute (certified by Dr. and Mrs. R. Thomas Bowman and Dr. Brooke Bowman at Aimee Hall@Sharp Farm) – $100,000 Smart Halo, $100,000 Maryland Juvenile Filly Championship, $100,000 Gin Talking (Laurel Park).

The following are the DCTP open stakes winners: Captain Scotty (Palos Verdes, Santa Anita, Jan. 25); Flatter Hymn (Governor's S, Indiana Grand, Aug. 26); Heart Full of Soul (Shakopee Juvenile, Canterbury Park, Sept. 17); Pink Caddy (Dr. Teresa Garofalo Memorial, Parx Racing, Sept. 7); Plane Drunk (Shamrock Rose, Penn National, Nov. 6); Pretty Good Year (Maryland Million Turf, Laurel Park, Oct. 24); Queen Nekia (Dance to Bristol, Charles Town, Aug. 28); Shackqueenking (Howard County, Laurel Park, Dec. 26); V. I. P. Ticket (A Huevo, Charles Town, Dec. 11). ◆

MARYLAND HORSE BREEDERS ASSOCIATION
Since 1929

Maryland Horse Breeders Association

The Maryland Horse Breeders Association (MHBA) has been the leading horse industry advocate in the state since its founding in 1929. It functions as an informational resource for horse breeders and owners, for the media, for national, community and governmental organizations and for the general public.

As a service organization, the MHBA provides industry information, educational opportunities and legislative representation to its membership, who include breeders, owners, trainers and horse enthusiasts of all kinds. The MHBA publishes a weekly e-mail bulletin and a monthly newsletter, Maryland Horse, as well as Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred magazine.

In addition, the MHBA maintains several websites: Maryland Thoroughbred.com, a resource for news and information on Maryland breeding and racing; MidAtlanticTB.com, which carries regional news, information on the magazine, and access to the digital edition of Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred; marylandmillion.com for news and events about Maryland's Day at the Races; and mdthoroughbredhalloffame.com which showcases full biographies of the Maryland-bred Hall of Fame horses.

The MHBA helped innovate, and now administers, several state-oriented incentive programs. Both the Maryland-Bred Race Fund, created by statute in 1962 for Thoroughbreds foaled in Maryland, and the Maryland Million, chartered in 1985 for Thoroughbreds conceived in Maryland, were the first programs of their kind anywhere in the U.S. ✹

The Maryland Fund: Maryland-bred awards

The Maryland Fund was created by the General Assembly in 1962. Maryland was the first state to develop a legislated incentive program to encourage the improvement of Thoroughbred breeding and racing.

In Maryland, there are six categories through which monies for Maryland-breds are made available: 1) purse money for races for registered Maryland-breds; 2) awards for owners of registered Maryland-breds finishing first, second or third; 3) awards for breeders of registered Maryland-breds finishing first, second or third; 4) awards for stallions who sire registered Maryland-breds finishing first, second or third; and 5) bonus awards for the highest-earning 2 and 3-year-olds shown at the annual MHBA yearling show and 6) an allocation for purses/bonuses for Maryland-sired horses.

Currently, the Maryland Fund receives slightly less than 1 percent of the total mutuel handle and breakage from Laurel and Pimlico (the state's two major tracks), and receives approximately 1.5 percent of the mutuel handle and 5.0 percent of the breakage at Timonium (the state's only minor track).

Owner awards are paid by the purse account to the owners of all registered Maryland-breds when they finish first, second or third in any race other than stakes, paid at 30 percent of the horse's share of the purse.

Breeder and stallion awards are paid for the registered Maryland-bred who finishes first, second or third in any race in Maryland. Breeder awards are 30 percent of a horse's share of the purse; stallion awards are 10 percent. In stakes races the award is based on the first $100,000 of the gross purse.

In order to earn a breeder award, the horse must be registered as a Maryland-bred. In order to earn a stallion award, the horse must be registered as a Maryland-bred, and the sire must be registered with the MHBA, in addition to having been standing in Maryland at the time the horse was conceived.

The Maryland Fund program is administered by the Maryland Racing Commission with the assistance and advice of the Maryland Fund Advisory Committee chaired by David Hayden, a member of the Maryland Racing Commission. Under the direction of the commission, the actual implementation of the fund, including maintaining the Maryland-bred registry and computing and distributing all bonus awards, is performed by the MHBA.

Breeder and stallion award percentages are evaluated on a bi-annual basis on the advice of the Maryland Fund Advisory Committee. Owner award percentages are determined by a separate agreement. (For Maryland Million day, breeder and stallion award percentages are determined annually.) Awards are paid as soon as practical.

The stakes program is planned on a meet by meet basis and is based on projected track handles for the coming year. ✹

Maryland-bred runners and stakes horses of 2021

This list represents all 2021 starters with earnings of $50,000 or more and all stakes horses in countries reported to The Jockey Club Information Systems. Final state statistics at end are the total for all state-bred runners. Stakes horses are indicated in bold type—winners in upper case letters, placed horses in upper and lower case. Foreign runners' records are calculated from all available sources, however may be incomplete.

2021 Maryland sires

Statistics compiled by The Jockey Club Information Systems for stallions who currently stand or concluded their careers in the state and are represented by earnings of $1,000 or more in 2021. Statistics are for racing through December 31, 2021, and include foreign results for all Northern and Southern Hemisphere countries as reported to TJCIS. †Indicates stallion represented by first crop to race. Explanation for abbreviations: Foals—total registered foals; Strs.—starters; Sts.—starts; Wnrs.—winners; %—percentage of winners from starters; SW—stakes winners.

Thoroughbred Breeders' Association of New Jersey

The Thoroughbred Breeders' Association of New Jersey is an organization dedicated to fostering and promoting the breeding and ownership of Thoroughbred horses in the state of New Jersey. Active since 1945, the association's primary role is to administer a New Jersey-bred incentive program for breeders, stallion owners and racehorse owners.

Benefits to members include a subscription to Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred, discounted member rates for foal registrations, access to online pedigree reports and manufacturer's discounts for farm equipment through NTRA Advantage and Equine Equipment.

The association also maintains a close alliance with the New Jersey Racing Commission, the New Jersey Department of Agriculture and the Equine Advisory Board, as well as the New Jersey Horse Council. ✹

New Jersey Breeders' Program

Requirements for eligibility to the New Jersey Breeders' Program:

(a) In order to be eligible to enter and start in races exclusively for New Jersey bred foals, each New Jersey bred foal must be registered with the Thoroughbred Breeders' Association of New Jersey (TBANJ).

(b) To qualify for such registration, the said horse must have been foaled in the State of New Jersey by a resident New Jersey mare or a non-resident New Jersey mare.

(c) A resident New Jersey mare is a mare that resides in New Jersey continuously from Nov. 1 of the year prior to the foaling through the date of foaling. A mare purchased at public auction subsequent to Oct. 17 of the year prior to foaling, is considered a resident New Jersey mare provided that she commences residence in New Jersey within two weeks of her purchase and continuously resides in New Jersey through the date of foaling. For the purpose of this paragraph, public auction is defined as an auction generally regarded as a public auction in the Thoroughbred horse industry and recognized as same by the TBANJ.

2. A non-resident New Jersey mare is a mare that has not returned to New Jersey by Nov. 1 of the year prior to foaling. The resulting foal can still be registered as a New Jersey-bred provided the mare is bred to a registered New Jersey stallion the season of the birth of said foal and remain in New Jersey for a continuous period of 90 days after foaling.

3. A "New Jersey stallion" is a stallion resident and standing in the State of New Jersey the full breeding season, commonly understood to be the period from Feb. 1 through July 1 of the subject year. If a stallion is brought into New Jersey subsequent to the start of the breeding season, he may be approved as a "New Jersey stallion" by the New Jersey Racing Commission upon recommendation of the Board of Trustees of the TBANJ provided that he stands and is a resident in New Jersey for the remainder of the breeding season. For those stallions brought into New Jersey subsequent to the commencement of the breeding season, approval by the TBANJ as a "New Jersey stallion" is only for the period from the date of approval through the end of the breeding season. All "New Jersey stallions" must be registered with the TBANJ and all appropriate fees paid prior to Feb. 1 of the breeding season or, in the case of a stallion entering the State subsequent to the start of the breeding season, prior to serving the first mare. Failure to meet the above criteria solely by reason of death of the stallion does not disqualify said stallion as a "New Jersey stallion."

Breeders qualify for awards when the owner of a mare registers the foal with the TBANJ. The breeder will receive a percentage based on what that foal earns when finishing first through fourth at a New Jersey track in both open and restricted New Jersey-bred races.

Award percentages for breeders – 35 percent* is paid if the foal is by a registered New Jersey stallion; 25 percent* if the foal is by a stallion standing in a state other than New Jersey.

In order for stallion owners to qualify for awards, the owner must register the stallion annually with the TBANJ. Stallion owners will receive an award equal to 10 percent* of what all foals by said stallion earn when finishing first through fourth at a New Jersey track in both open and restricted New Jersey-bred races.

Owners of New Jersey-bred horses will receive an award equal to 10 percent* when their New Jersey-bred horse finishes first through fourth at a New Jersey track in open races. ✹

There is a $8,000 maximum for first and $4,000 for second through fourth on each award in each race. Total awards are based on funds generated annually.*

Established in late 1979 by a small but dedicated group of Thoroughbred owners and breeders, the North Carolina Thoroughbred Association is a nonprofit, all-volunteer organization governed by an elected board of directors and officers.

The mission statement of the North Carolina Thoroughbred Association reads as follows:

• To promote the Thoroughbred industry in North Carolina;

• To provide educational opportunity to its members in all aspects of the industry;

• To provide its members with the opportunity to develop working relationships, and to meet as friends and colleagues, thereby encouraging excellence and outstanding achievements of members. ✹

Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association (PHBA), a not-for-profit organization founded in 1948, has as its main priority protection of Pennsylvania's Thoroughbred breeding and racing industries. These industries are important agricultural institutions that play significant roles in the state's economy, generating tremendous tax revenues for the state and making substantial contributions to the state's economy in general, while helping to sustain Pennsylvania's rural character.

Working with other industry leaders over the years, PHBA has attained several goals that have had far-reaching benefits. One such goal was the establishment of the Pennsylvania Breeding Fund, which became a reality in 1974. The fund program, administered by PHBA, has evolved into one of the country's most lucrative incentive programs. ✹

Pennsylvania Breeding Fund

Pennsylvania's Breeding Fund program distributes more money, on a per foal basis, than nearly every other statebred program now in operation. Established in 1974, the Pennsylvania Breeding Fund has grown from a disbursement of $65,000 in its initial year of operation to an average of $28 million in the last 10 years.

Thoroughbred breeding and racing is a high-risk enterprise, but for breeders of PA-Breds, owners of stallions standing in this state, and owners of PA-Breds racing at PARX Racing, Penn National and Presque Isle Downs, the added rewards can be one factor that makes for a winning stable.

The Pennsylvania Breeding Fund is financed by a percentage of the state's racing fund, after expenses, and slot revenues. It provides for individual award payments (breeder and stallion awards), overnight races for PA-Breds, purse bonus supplements, PA-Bred stakes races, and reimbursement of expenses incurred by the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association (PHBA) in its role as program administrator.

While benefitting owners and breeders with its incentive awards, the Fund serves a wider purpose, helping to support live racing at PARX Racing, Penn National and Presque Isle Downs. By making it worthwhile for owners to race PA-Breds in their native state, the Breeding Fund program channels a steady supply of competitive runners to the Pennsylvania tracks, and makes it less likely that our homegrown product will be lured to competing race tracks within the region.

Pennsylvania's breeding and racing industry contributes approximately $1.6 billion annually to the state's economy, so it is clear that the state has a vested interest in supporting these activities.

By law, PHBA is responsible for administering the Breeding Fund program for the State Horse Racing Commission, and maintaining an up-to-date registry of PA-Breds and Pennsylvania stallions.

A Thoroughbred foal born in the state of Pennsylvania and registered as such with The Jockey Club is eligible for Pennsylvania-bred registration with the PHBA if one of the following conditions is met:

1) The dam of the foal resided continuously in Pennsylvania since Dec. 1 of the year of conception through foaling. Mares not being bred back will fall under this category.
2) The dam of the foal was purchased at a public sale after Dec. 1 of the year of conception and brought into Pennsylvania within 14 days of the date of purchase (60 days if outside the U.S.) and remained continuously through foaling. During the year of foaling, the foal or its dam spent at least ninety (90) days in the state. Private transactions are not eligible for domicile waiver.
3) The dam of the foal arrived after Dec. 1 of the year of conception, foaled in Pennsylvania and was bred back to a registered PA stallion standing in Pennsylvania and the dam of the foal resided sixty (60) consecutive days during which foaling occurred.

There are two distinctions when registering a PA-Bred foal: those sired by registered Pennsylvania stallions and those sired by non-registered stallions.

PA-Breds have preferred starter status within the conditions in most non-restricted overnight races. The preference is claimed by trainers at the time of entry.

RACING INCENTIVES

• Owner bonus of up to 40 percent of purse earned for first, second and third-place finishes on all unrestricted overnight races.

• More than 400 restricted races offered, and 27 restricted stakes which include a PA-Bred, PA-Sired series for 2-year-olds. PA-Sired horses run for 25 percent additional in all PA-Bred stakes races, unless the stakes is for PA-Sired PA-Breds.

BREEDING INCENTIVES

• Breeder awards of 50 percent for first, second and third-place purses earned for registered PA-Sired PA-Breds for all PA maiden classes (40 percent in all other PA races); 25 percent for first, second and third-place purses earned for registered non-PA-Sired PA-Breds for all PA maiden classes (20 percent for all other PA races).

• Stallion awards of 10 percent paid to the owner of a registered Pennsylvania stallion for purses earned by registered Pennsylvania-Breds in all races at Pennsylvania tracks. ✹

2021 Pennsylvania sires

Statistics compiled by The Jockey Club Information Systems for stallions who currently stand or concluded their careers in the state and are represented by earnings of $1,000 or more in 2021. Statistics are for racing through December 31, 2021, and include foreign results for all Northern and Southern Hemisphere countries as reported to TJCIS. †Indicates stallion represented by first crop to race. Explanation for abbreviations: Foals—total registered foals; Strs.—starters; Sts.—starts; Wnrs.—winners; %—percentage of winners from starters; SW—stakes winners.

South Carolina Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association

The mission of the South Carolina Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association (SCTOBA) is to promote the Thoroughbred horse industry in the state and throughout the region.

The SCTOBA works to create awareness of the tremendous economic impact the Thoroughbred horse industry has in the state. The organization is a blend of members who have interest in the various aspects of the Thoroughbred business – breeding, training and racing.

The organization reaches out to partner with sister organizations such as the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation of South Carolina and other regional state associations. In doing so, the SCTOBA looks to provide leadership and solutions to the challenges presented by the Thoroughbred business.

Our farms and training centers represent our state across the country with graduates continuously winning stakes events. ✹

Virginia Thoroughbred Association

The Virginia Thoroughbred Association (VTA) was organized in 1942 to cultivate further development of the Commonwealth's heritage as a producer of quality Thoroughbred horses.

With the passage of parimutuel racing legislation, the VTA has vastly expanded the scope of its operations, both to assist in developing rules under which a parimutuel breeders' fund is administered by the Virginia Racing Commission, and to address the opportunities racing holds forth to strengthen and enhance Virginia's standing as one of the world's important centers for Thoroughbred nurseries.

Above all, the VTA is a service organization whose main goal is to assist members in achieving success with Thoroughbreds. ✹

Virginia Breeders' Fund

Rules for registering with the Virginia Breeders' Fund:

A Virginia-bred horse is a Thoroughbred horse registered by The Jockey Club, foaled in Virginia and registered with the Virginia Thoroughbred Association. A breeders award is earned when a registered Virginia-bred wins a race at a sanctioned meet in North America. Virginia-breds are eligible for Virginia restricted races.

A Virginia-sired horse is a horse registered with the Jockey Club, conceived in Virginia, foaled outside of Virginia and sired by a stallion registered with the Virginia Thoroughbred Association (VTA). Breeders of Virginia-sired horses are not eligible for Virginia Breeders' awards. Virginia-sired horses are eligible for all Virginia restricted races.

Virginia-bred or Virginia-sired foal registration:

Foals of 2022 are eligible for registration with the Virginia Breeders' Fund. A 2022 foal born in Virginia can be registered as a Virginia-bred by Dec. 31, 2022, for $25 (VTA member fee) or $125 (non-member fee). If the foal is not registered by Dec. 31 of its foaling year, it can be registered as a yearling for $50 (VTA member fee) or $150 (non-member fee) or as a 2-year-old or older at a fee of $200 (VTA member fee) or $300 (non-member fee).

Foals dropped outside of Virginia but sired by a Virginia registered stallion may be registered as a Virginia-sired foal. The fee to register a Virginia-sired horse is $25 (VTA member fee) or $125 (non-member fee).

Stallion registration:

Virginia stallions must register with the Virginia Thoroughbred Association annually by Dec. 31. The annual registration makes a Virginia stallion owner eligible to receive stallion awards based on the performance of the resulting foal crop from the breeding season in which the stallion is registered (for example Virginia stallions registered in 2022 are eligible for awards based on the performance of their 2023 foal crop). The fee to register a stallion is $100 (VTA member fee) or $200 (non-member fee).

Fund distribution:

The Virginia Breeders' Fund is generated by 1 percent of every dollar wagered on live racing, OTBs and ADW in Virginia. Each year the Virginia Racing Commission approves how the money in the fund is allocated.

A large portion of the fund ($975,000 for 2021) is set aside for payments to breeders of registered Virginia-breds that win races at any race track in North America. There is a $25,000 cap on any single award. In 2021 Breeders' awards averaged 32% of each winning purse.

A smaller portion ($75,000 for 2021) is set aside for payments to owners of registered Virginia stallions whose offspring win at any racetrack in North America.

Monies are also set aside to supplement purses for races restricted to registered Virginia-bred or Virginia-sired horses. ✹

2021 VIRGINIA-BRED STAKES WINNERS

Horses in heavy bold type are graded stakes winners. More details about each of the stakes winners, including stakes-winning finish shot, video of the wins, interactive pedigrees, complete race records and produce records of dam can be found at MidAtlanticTB.com.

2021 Virginia-Certified Owner Bonuses

In 2017 the Virginia Thoroughbred Association (VTA) started a new owner's bonus program that rewards owners of Virginia-certified horses that win races at Mid-Atlantic region racetracks. The program adds a 25 percent bonus to the winning purse of any Virginia-certified horse that wins a race in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia and Virginia. The program also applies to Virginia-certified horses that win races at National Steeplechase Association sanctioned meets in the Mid-Atlantic region. Wins in Virginia restricted races are not eligible for owners bonuses. There is a $10,000 cap on any single award.

A Virginia-certified horse is a horse registered by The Jockey Club, conceived and foaled outside of Virginia but that maintains residency in Virginia for at least a six (6)-month consecutive period prior to Dec. 31 of its 2-year-old year. The horse must maintain residency at a listed Virginia facility, where the horse can be available for inspection by a VACTP official. As of April 1, 2021, a Certified Program rule change went into effect. Bonuses are now paid to the Certified Developer. The owners' bonuses below are through March 31, 2021.

2021 Virginia-Certified Developer Bonuses

As of April 1, 2021, the Virginia Thoroughbred Association (VTA) made two changes to the Virginia-Certified program. 1) Developers of Virginia-certified horses earn a bonus of 25% of the winning purse when a certified horse wins at a Mid-Atlantic racetrack (previously the owner of the horse earned the 25% bonus). A Developer is defined as the person or entity listed on the chart as owner when the Virginia-certified horse makes its first start. 2) Developers earn 10% of the winning purse in West Virginia restricted races. Bonuses are paid for wins in NY, NJ, PA, DE, MD, WV and VA and all NSA sanctioned meets in the Mid-Atlantic region. Wins in Virginia restricted races are not eligible for Developer bonuses. There is a $10,000 cap on any single award.

A Virginia-certified horse is a horse registered by The Jockey Club, conceived, and foaled outside of Virginia but that maintains residency in Virginia for at least six (6) consecutive months prior to December 31 of its 2-year-old year. The horse must reside at a listed Virginia facility, where the horse is available for inspection by a VACTP official.

2021 Virginia-bred or Virginia-sired Owners' Bonus Awards

In 2016 the VHBPA and the VTA implemented a new owners bonus program that awards owners of registered Virginia-bred and Virginia-sired horses that win at Mid-Atlantic region racetracks. The owner of a registered Virginia-bred or sired horse earns 25 percent more for a win at a Maryland, West Virginia, Delaware, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania or Virginia track. The 25 percent Virginia-bred or sired owner's bonus is also earned for wins at National Steeplechase Association sanctioned meets in the Mid-Atlantic region. There is a $10,000 cap on any single award. Wins in Virginia-bred or sired restricted races are not eligible for owner's bonuses.

West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association

The West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association promotes the Thoroughbred breeding and racing industries in West Virginia through the financial incentives of breeders' awards programs.

The WVTBA sponsors races and activities throughout the year. An annual West Virginia-bred and/or sired horse show offers classes with cash awards and trophies. Additional activities include seminars and an annual awards dinner in late February/early March. The WVTBA is part of the West Virginia Fest in June in Charles Town, and hosts an annual meeting in November.

In 1968, when the West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association was started, the West Virginia foal crop numbered less than 70. The numbers didn't increase much above 100 until the Development Fund was begun in 1984. Now several hundred West Virginia-bred and/or sired foals are born each year.

Please contact the WVTBA for registration rules and fees.

Membership dues are $100 per year. If paid by June 30, members receive reduced registration rates for West Virginia-bred and/or sired horses. Please see the WVTBA website for other benefits and check out our Facebook page for news.

Call or write the WVTBA for information on how you may participate and benefit from our outstanding program. Office hours are 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday. ✹

IT PAYS TO HAVE A WEST VIRGINIA-BRED AND/OR -SIRED HORSE!

WV BREEDERS PROGRAMS OFFER SOME OF THE BEST INCENTIVES IN THE NATION:

- A minimum of three accredited races are written every day at Charles Town exclusively for registered WV-bred and/or -sired horses.
- West Virginia has the only program in the country that permits horses to win state-bred races that do not count against the horse's lifetime open conditions.
- The WV Thoroughbred Development Fund distributes over $4.5 million to breeders, owners, and sire owners of accredited WV-bred and/or -sired horses based the horse's annual earnings at Charles Town and Mountaineer Park racetracks.
- The West Virginia Breeders Classics pays out almost $1 million in purses for WV-bred and/or -sired horses. It is held annually on the 2nd Saturday in October.
- $800,000 in purses are allocated for up to sixteen WV accredited stakes races during the year.
- Supplemental Purse Awards of up to 10% of the winner's share of the purse to the owner, breeder, and/or sire owner of the accredited WV-bred and/or -sired winner.
- West Virginia offers year-round racing with approximately 300 race days per year.

No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form or by means electronic, mechanical, photographic, magnetic or otherwise, without the prior written permission of The Jockey Club. The Jockey Club does not represent this information as purporting to describe the fertility of any Thoroughbred stallion. Data provided by The Jockey Club is generally accurate but occasionally errors occur as a result of incorrect data received from others, mistakes in processing, and other causes. The Jockey Club disclaims responsibility for the consequences, if any, of such errors, but would appreciate them being called to its attention. Figures in parentheses next to Mares Bred indicate the number of mares bred to the stallion on Southern Hemisphere time. The information is based on Live Foal/No Foal (LF/NF) Reports received as of Oct. 1, 2021.

2021 Auction Statistics for Mid-Atlantic Horses

Paper Mirror, by Kobe's Back, topped the Mid-Atlantic-sired 2-year-olds in 2021 at $375,000.

Two-year-olds sell better than yearlings. If you had to force a one-sentence summary of the 2021 sales market for horses bred in the Mid-Atlantic or sired by regional stallions, that would just about do it.

And it wouldn't really surprise anyone. Two-year-olds are also a year closer to getting to the races and for most regional buyers, that's what matters. The sales calendar returned to normal in 2021, after a major shuffling in 2020 due to the Covid-19 pandemic, and buyers/sellers were anxious for some normalcy.

Business boomed for many, even though the impact of Covid on racing–and the world–continued.

"It's amazing how resilient our industry is, with all the stuff that's going on at the moment," said Eddie Woods, a Florida-based 2-year-old consignor and a regular at Fasig-Tipton Midlantic's spring sale. "The depth of horses here is something and the buyers come to look for them."

Mid-Atlantic-sired 2-year-olds rocketed to a banner 2021 with 11 horses selling for $100,000 or more. Paper Mirror, a colt by Bonita Farm (Maryland) stallion Kobe's Back, led the way at $375,000 on a bid by John Fort at the Ocala Breeders Sales Company's spring sale. Bred in Maryland by Barak Farm, the gray/roan has yet to race but was working at Palm Meadows Training Center in Florida. The success put Kobe's Back atop the regional stallions by average, though it's a small sample size (two sales horses from a first crop of 18).

Other freshmen sires turning in solid early sales results with 2-year-olds included:

• Shamrock Farm's Rainbow Heir ($91,667 average), fueled by two $130,000 purchases. One of those, Florida-bred Nerve, posted a win at Gulfstream Park in August and finished second in a stakes.

• Anchor and Hope Farm's Holy Boss ($90,000), led by two horses hitting six figures.

• Country Life Farm's Divining Rod ($50,667), powered by $135,000 colt Alpha Whiskey. The Maryland-bred had yet to race by mid-February, but was breezing toward a debut at Oaklawn Park.

Among the regional-bred graduates, Munny Bolt showed the way at $460,000 on a bid by Lady Sheila Stable at Fasig-Tipton Midlantic's spring sale at Timonium, Md. The Munnings colt was bred in Pennsylvania by Equivine Farm. Three others topped $400,000–Courtside (a Maryland-bred by Gormley), Torpedo Run (Pennsylvania, Gun Runner) and an unnamed Cupid filly out of Callipepla (Virginia).

While not as gaudy at the top, the yearling market produced a stronger middle market. A Divining Rod colt, purchased by that stallion's co-owners Lael Stable, set the bar for regional stallions at $115,000. The top 20 featured plenty of variety with multiple yearlings by veteran Great Notion and relative newcomers, Divining Rod, Hoppertunity and Long River. Regional-breds found traction on the big stage, led by a $625,000 Justify filly (bred in Pennsylvania by Blackstone Farm and purchased by the My Racehorse fractional ownership syndicate) topping the list at $625,000 at Fasig-Tipton's Saratoga select sale. Lael went to $550,000 to land a Pennsylvania-bred Gun Runner colt, also bred by Blackstone and also at Saratoga.

Youngsters weren't the only horses in demand at North American Thoroughbred auctions in 2021 as broodmare and broodmare prospects again proved valuable. There were no seven-figure sales (three were three in 2020), but the depth was there. Five sold for $500,000 or more, topped by Pennsylvania-bred Vault–a daughter of Jump Start who won seven races including a Grade 2 stakes and earned $491,914 for her owner/breeder Larry Karp's Barlar stable. Vault sold to Stonestreet Thoroughbred Holidings for $850,000 at Keeneland November. New Jersey-bred graded winner Horologist went for $800,000 at the same sale, joining the broodmare band of Japan's Katsumi Yoshida. ◆

SARA GORDON

A Divining Rod for $115,000 at Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall topped the regional-sired yearlings for 2021.

2021 sales horses by Mid-Atlantic stallions

The following results, for 2021, represent all stallions who stand or completed their stud careers in the Mid-Atlantic region. Categories are divided by age groups—weanlings, yearlings and 2-year-olds. Information is provided as follows: Stallion's name, year of birth, sire and state where stallion was last reported as standing at stud; name of foal, sex, dam, sale code, buyer and price. RNA (reserve not attained) includes the last bid recorded, shown in parentheses. Sales results were compiled by The Jockey Club Information Systems. Data provided or compiled by The Jockey Club Information Systems generally is accurate, but occasionally errors and omissions occur as a result of incorrect data received by others, mistakes in processing and other causes. Therefore, The Jockey Club Information Systems makes no representations of warranties, express or implied, including those of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, as to any matter whatsoever, including but not limited to, the accuracy of any information, product, program or service furnished hereunder and all such information, products, programs and/or services are accepted on an "as is" basis.

Virginia offers MORE

Breeders

Foal your mare in Virginia and earn bonuses for ANY WIN in North America, including NSA-sanctioned races.

In 2021, breeders received 32% bonuses on the winning purses their VA-breds earned in North America.

Virginia-bred or Virginia-sired Owners

Earn a 25% bonus on winning purses in the Mid-Atlantic, including NSA-sanctioned meets*.

At Colonial Downs, VA-bred and VA-sired are eligible for:

FIVE $125,000 Stakes for VA-bred and VA-sired horses

SIX VA Restricted Stakes where VA-bred, VA-sired run for $150,000

(VA-certified run for $100,000)

Earn 50% bonus on purses for 1st thru 4th in all open races

More restricted overnight races than ever before.

Owner bonuses are only paid for wins in open races at Colonial Downs

Virginia-Certified Developers

Developers of VA-Certified horses earn a 25% bonus for any win in the Mid-Atlantic, including NSA-sanctioned meets*. Developers earn 10% bonus in WV restricted races.

To be certified, horse must complete a minimum 6-month VA residency prior to December 31 of its 2YO year. Developer is the owner of the horse in its first career start.

Developer bonuses are only paid for wins in open races at Colonial Downs

Virginia-Certified Owners

At Colonial Downs, VA-certified are eligible for:

SIX $100,000 VA Restricted Stakes

More restricted overnight races than ever before

To be certified, horse must complete a minimum 6-month VA residency prior to December 31 of its 2YO year.
